are no longer expected to know much about the information they find they are merely expected to find it Technological competency rather than knowledge has become the order of the day In many respects reference service has become a matter of typing search terms into a library s online catalog or a web search engine and providing the patron with the results of the search Calling for a re intellectualization of reference librarianship this book suggests another approach to providing quality reference service reading The authors surveyed both academic reference librarians and public library reference personnel in the United States and Canada about their reading habits From the 950 responses the authors present findings about the extent to which librarians read newspapers periodicals fiction and nonfiction and recount and analyze stories about how reading has made them better librarians The authors also report that North American professors in the humanities and social sciences believe that the best reference librarians are those who have wide ranging subject based knowledge as opposed to the type of process based functional knowledge that is increasingly dominating the curricula of many Library and Information Science programs

Tom Clancy's Splinter Cell: Checkmate David Michaels,2006-11-07 DON T MISS THE UPCOMING NETFLIX ANIMATED SERIES SPLINTER CELL DEATHWATCH Sam Fisher s skills and determination are put to the ultimate test in this pulse pounding addition to Tom Clancy s bestselling series Third Echelon special operative Sam Fisher finds himself facing a race against time as a cargo freighter loaded with radioactive material hurtles towards the United States coast With only minutes to spare Fisher must disable the ship Will he succeed in preventing a catastrophic disaster or will he become a casualty of his own bravery

The Fascinated God Robert E. Zinser,2003-10 I loved her inasmuch as day one and when day two came I married her on day three she made me a gallant father to three beautiful kids On day four we sat on our porch and watch our grand children play hide and seek When day fi ve arrived she planted a kiss on my lips before she fl oated up the sky On day fi ve and a quarter my heart could no longer exist a second without saliva from a soul mate when day fi ve and a half and seven seconds came I accepted her hands for a prom dance in heaven Now every morning we lay under our fi rst date bridge with anticipation we watch legend sun rise with a kiss
