Gardner, 2022-05-24 Charity is central to the Jewish tradition In this formative study Gregg E Gardner takes on this concept to examine the beginnings of Jewish thought on care for the poor Focusing on writings of the earliest rabbis from the third century c e Gardner shows how the ancient rabbis saw the problem of poverty primarily as questions related to wealth how it is gained and lost how it distinguishes rich from poor and how to convince people to part with their wealth Contributing to our understanding of the history of religions Wealth Poverty and Charity in Jewish Antiquity demonstrates that a focus on wealth can provide us with a fuller understanding of charity in Jewish thought and the larger world from which Judaism and Christianity emerged

Locating Atonement
Zondervan, 2015-11-10 A Close Look at Atonement s Place in Contemporary Systematic Theology In light of renewed interest in the doctrine of atonement during which a range of atonement models have gained momentum among different traditions it is important to map these models to the broader context of theological thought on this aspect of Christ s work and to show how no single approach has the complete picture The proceedings of the third annual Los Angeles Theology Conference seek to identify the place of the doctrine of atonement in systematic theology Locating Atonement stays away from discussion of theories of atonement typologies of those theories and contests among various theories Instead its focus is on the question What else is there to do in atonement theology besides rehashing types and theories The twelve diverse essays in this collection include discussions on Atonement and the concept of punishment Atonement and ascension Atonement and human suffering Atonement and covenant Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future

The Guild Book of the Barbers and Surgeons of York (British Library, Egerton MS 2572) Richard D. Wragg, 2021 A new exploration of the secular manuscripts and medieval medical texts associated with the York Guild and its members Produced in 1486 and subsequently augmented the Guild Book of the Barbers and Surgeons of York British Library Egerton MS 2572 is a unique record of the knowledge ambitions activities and civic relationships maintained by the Barbers and Surgeons Guild over a period of 300 years The manuscript s earliest folios contain images astrological tracts a plague treatise and a bloodletting poem To these were added early modern ordinances and oaths a series of royal portraits and the names of the Guild s masters and apprentices It is a rare survival of late medieval medical knowledge placed within a civic context This new multi disciplinary examination of the York Guild Book presents a comprehensive edition of its content and a detailed study of the creation and use of this fascinating manuscript The York Guild Book was not owned by any one person but was intended to be representative of the types of manuscripts the Guild s members might have individually possessed The Guild s commission elevated their manuscript s functional content into something which could be proudly owned and displayed as is demonstrated by the stylishly executed pen and ink drawings two of which are possibly unique Through a contextualisation of the form and content of the manuscript the book articulates ideas about material culture and the ceremonial role of secular manuscripts whilst shedding new light on the dissemination and status of medieval medical texts     The Algerines; or, The twins of Naples William Child Green,1832     Serving Athena Julia L. Shear,2021-03-11 In ancient Athens the Panathenaia was the most important festival and was celebrated in honour of Athena from the middle of the sixth century BC until the end of the fourth century AD This in depth study examines how this all Athenian celebration was an occasion for constructing identities and how it affected those identities Since not everyone took part in the same way this differential participation articulated individuals relationships both to the goddess and to the city so that the festival played an important role in negotiating what it meant to be Athenian and non Athenian Julia Shear applies theories of identity formation which were developed in the social sciences to the ancient Greek material and brings together historical epigraphical and archaeological evidence to provide a better understanding both of this important occasion and of Athenian identities over the festival s long history     The Diary of Alpha Kappa Psi ,1990     The Saturday Evening Post ,1913     Texas Dental Journal ,1913 Issues for 1962 include as a separate section the association s annual roster     Our Young People ,1920     The Living Rock Arthur Wilson,1994 This book concentrates on the social and economic effects that metals have had on community life and on wider historical developments It gives a fascinating perspective proclaiming that the history of metals is the history of civilization basing the text on the results of archeometallurgists and materials scientists and looking at the advancement of societies as a direct result of their new found technology The author s clear and lucid style prevents the book becoming aridly academic while he maps the course of ancient history through to medieval times and beyond showing metal to be ultimately the key to history     Congressional Record United States.
