stories encompass descriptions of herbs that cure leprosy a fairy princess with golden tresses using magic charms to heal her lover's wounds and restore him to life a fire breathing dragon a two headed creature and a giant's daughter for whom the rind of a watermelon containing twelve spies is no more than a speck of dust In Tales in Context Sefer ha ma asim in Medieval Northern France Rella Kushelevsky enlightens the stories meanings and reflects the circumstances and environment for Jewish lives in medieval France Although a selection of tales was previously published this is the first publication of a Hebrew English annotated edition in its entirety revealing fresh insight The first part of Kushelevsky's work Cultural Literary and Comparative Perspectives presents the thesis that Sefer ha ma asim is a product of its time and place and should therefore be studied within its literary and cultural surroundings Jewish and vernacular in northern France An investigation of the scribe's techniques in reworking his Jewish and non Jewish sources into a medieval discourse supports this claim The second part of the manuscript consists of the tales themselves in Hebrew and English translation including brief comparative comments or citations The third part An Analytical and Comparative Overview offers an analysis of each tale as an individual unit contextualized within its medieval framework and against the background of its parallels Elisheva Baumgarten's epilogue adds social and historical background to Sefer ha ma asim and discusses new ways in which it and other story compilations may be used by historians for an inquiry into the everyday life of medieval Jews The tales in Sefer ha ma asim will be of special value to scholars of folklore and medieval European history and literature as well as those looking to enrich their studies and shelves

The Book of Noodles William Alexander Clouston, 1888 William Alexander Clouston 1843-1896 was a famous British Folklorist He contributed to valuable studies combining Eastern traditional literature with Norse and Western Folklore His works include The Book of Noodles Stories of Simpletons or Fools and Their Follies 1888 Flowers from a Persian Garden and Other Papers 1890 and Book of Wise Sayings 1893 LIKE popular tales in general the original sources of stories of simpletons are for the most part not traceable The old Greek jests of this class had doubtless been floating about among different peoples long before they were reduced to writing The only tales and apologues of noodles or stupid folk to which an approximate date can be assigned are those found in the early Buddhist books especially in the J takas or Birth stories which are said to have been related to his disciples by Gautama the illustrious founder of Buddhism as incidents which occurred to himself and others in former births and were afterwards put into a literary form by his followers

Studies on Lamartine Phillip Ogden, 1907 , Themes and Variations in Shakespeare's Sonnets J B Leishman, 2013-04-15 First published in 1961 This study analyses Shakespeare's treatment of the universal themes of Beauty Love and Time He compares Shakespeare with other great poets and sonnet writers Pindar Horace and Ovid with Petrarch Tasso and Ronsart with Shakespeare's own English predecessors and contemporaries notably Spenser Daniel and Drayton and with John Donne By discussing their resemblances and differences a not altogether orthodox picture of Shakespeare's attitude to life is presented which suggests that he was not as phlegmatic and equable a person as critics have often
