Worth, 2017-02-08 Why should we read We assume that reading is good for us but often we cannot articulate exactly what it does for us In this fascinating book Sarah Worth addresses from a philosophical perspective the many ways in which reading benefits us morally socially and cognitively Worth leads her readers through the subtle questions of the ways in which we understand fiction nonfiction and the overlap and blending of other genre distinctions Ultimately she argues that reading hearing and telling well told stories is of the utmost importance in developing a healthy sense of personal identity a greater sense of narrative coherence and an increased ability to make different kinds of inferences Engaging classical philosophical questions in the contemporary landscape of educational literacy and the inclusion of fiction in a classroom curriculum Worth demonstrates how our hyper focus on genre distinctions moves us away from a real engagement with narrative understanding and narrative comprehension Displaced Kate Rose, 2020-01-30 Through specific and rigorous analysis of contemporary literary texts this book shows how writers from inside affected communities portray indigeneity displacement and trauma In a world of increasing global inequality this study aims to demonstrate how literature and the study of it can effect positive social change notably in the face of global environmental economic and social injustice This collection brings together a diverse and compelling array of voices from academics leading their fields around the world to pioneer a new approach to literary analysis anchored in engagement with our changing world Junot Díaz José David Saldívar, 2022-08-29 In Junot D az On the Half Life of Love Jos David Sald var offers a critical examination of one of the leading American writers of his generation He explores D az s imaginative work and the diasporic and immigrant world he inhabits showing how his influences converged in his fiction and how his writing especially his Pulitzer Prize winning novel The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao radically changed the course of US Latinx literature and created a new way of viewing the decolonial world Sald var examines several aspects of D az s career from his vexed relationship to the literary aesthetics of Whiteness that dominated his MFA experience and his critiques of the colonialities of power race and gender in culture and societies of the Dominican Republic United States and the Am ricas to his use of the science fiction imaginary to explore the capitalist zombification of our planet Throughout Sald var shows how D az s works exemplify the literary currents of the early twenty first century Classicisms in the Black Atlantic Ian S. Moyer, Adam Lecznar, Heidi Morse, 2020 Classicisms in the Black Atlantic explores how black authors and artists in the Atlantic world have shaped and reshaped the cultural

legacies of classical antiquity from the aftermath of slavery up to the present day to represent black voices and experiences often revealing in the process effaced black presences in classical antiquity Area Studies in the Global Age Edith Clowes, Shelly Jarrett Bromberg, 2016-02-29 This interdisciplinary volume is a new introduction to area studies in the framework of whole world thinking Emerging in the United States after World War II area studies have proven indispensable to American integration in the world They serve two main purposes to equip future experts with rich cultural historical and political economic knowledge of a world area in its global context and advanced foreign language proficiency and to provide interested readers with well founded analyses of a vast array of the world's communities Area Studies in the Global Age examines the interrelation between three constructions central to any culture community place and identity and builds on research by scholars specializing in diverse world areas including Africa Central East and North Asia Eastern and East Central Europe and Latin America In contrast to sometimes oversimplified globalized thinking the studies featured here argue for the importance of understanding particular human experience and the actual effects of global changes on real people's lives The rituals narratives symbols and archetypes that define a community as well as the spaces to which communities attach meaning are crucial to members self perception and sense of agency Editors Edith W Clowes and Shelly Jarrett Bromberg have put into practice the original mission of US area studies which were intended to employ both social science and humanities research methods This important study presents and applies a variety of methodologies including interviews and surveys the construction of databases the analysis of public rituals and symbols the examination of archival documents as well as contemporary public commentary and the close reading and interpretation of fiction art buildings cities and other creatively produced works in their social contexts Designed for advanced undergraduate and beginning graduate students in allied disciplines Clowes and Bromberg's volume will also appeal to readers interested in internationally focused humanities and social sciences Twentieth-Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context Linda De Roche, 2021-06-04 This four volume reference work surveys American literature from the early 20th century to the present day featuring a diverse range of American works and authors and an expansive selection of primary source materials Bringing useful and engaging material into the classroom this four volume set covers more than a century of American literary history from 1900 to the present Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context profiles authors and their works and provides overviews of literary movements and genres through which readers will understand the historical cultural and political contexts that have shaped American writing Twentieth Century and Contemporary American Literature in Context provides wide coverage of authors works genres and movements that are emblematic of the diversity of modern America Not only are major literary movements represented such as the Beats but this work also highlights the emergence and development of modern Native American literature African American literature and other representative groups that showcase the diversity of American letters A rich selection of primary documents and background material provides indispensable information for student research Literature in Motion Ellen Jones, 2022-01-18 Literature is often assumed to be monolingual publishing rights are sold on the basis of linguistic territories and translated books are assumed to move from one original language to another Yet a wide range of contemporary literary works mix and meld two or more languages incorporating translation into their composition How are these multilingual works translated and what are the cultural and political implications of doing so In Literature in Motion Ellen Jones offers a new framework for understanding literary multilingualism emphasizing how authors and translators can use its defamiliarizing and disruptive potential to resist conventions of form and dominant narratives about language and gender Examining the connection between translation and multilingualism in contemporary literature she considers its significance for the theory practice and publishing of literature in translation Jones argues that translation does not conflict with multilingual writing's subversive potential Instead we can understand multilingualism and translation as closely intertwined creative strategies through which other forms of textual and conceptual hybridity fluidity and disruption are explored Jones addresses both well known and understudied writers from across the American hemisphere who explore the spaces between languages as well as genders genres and textual versions reading their work alongside their translations She focuses on U S Latinx authors Susana Ch vez Silverman Junot D az and Giannina Braschi who write in different forms of Spanglish as well as the Brazilian writer Wilson Bueno who combines Portuguese and Spanish or Portunhol with the indigenous language Guarani and whose writing is rendered into Frenglish by Canadian translator Er n Moure Culturally Responsive Reading Durthy A. Washington, 2023 This book presents the LIST Paradigm to help educators unlock literature with four keys to culture Language Identity Space and Time The text includes teaching strategies classroom examples and texts by writers of color Transculturality and Perceptions of the Immigrant Other Geoffroy de Laforcade, Page R. Laws, Cathy Covell Waegner, 2011-01-18 No other issue in our times of globalization has aroused such passionate debate as the increasingly complex transborder movements of people of all ethnicities with the self perceived from heres often struggling to maintain the illusion of separateness from intruding come heres The paradigm of transculturality offers prospects to rethink demystify and represent cultural unity and difference assimilation and alterity in a manner that acknowledges the fissures and the fictions in traditional cultural dichotomies such as the melodramatically instrumentalized national vs foreign The interdisciplinary essays compiled in Transculturality and Perceptions of the Immigrant Other focus on the ways in which new diasporic and migrational patterns arouse ill will and conflict but also negotiation and transcultural impulses resulting in transformed meso structures in media schooling and business Investigating regional immigrant groups in the states of Virginia and North Rhine Westphalia as well as the discourses and images in public media films literature and cultural events the studies both document the contest for geographical work and community space and place it in larger theoretical and specific historical contexts Arising from an international project undertaken by senior and junior scholars from the fields of cultural studies history and sociology at

Norfolk State University in Virginia and University of Siegen in Germany these essays suggest that cultural citizenship can embody dynamic expressions of belonging and strategies of empowerment which shape political and economic communities engendering in the process innovative forms of constantly negotiated hybrid identity and transmigratory affiliation

Symbolism 17: Latina/o Literature Rüdiger Ahrens, Florian Kläger, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2017-10-10 The complex nature of globalization increasingly requires a comparative approach to literature in order to understand how migration and commodity flows impact aesthetic production and expressive practices This special issue of Symbolism An International Journal of Critical Aesthetics explores the trans American dimensions of Latina o literature in a trans Atlantic context Examining the theoretical implications suggested by the comparison of the global North global South dynamics of material and aesthetic exchange this volume highlights emergent Latina o authors texts and methodologies of interest in for comparative literary studies In the essays literary scholars address questions of the transculturation translation and reception of Latina o literature in the United States and Europe In the interviews emergent Latina o authors speak to the processes of creative writing in a transnational context This volume suggests how the trans American dialogues found in contemporary Latina o literature elucidates trans Atlantic critical dialogues

Decolonizing Diasporas Yomaira C Figueroa-Vásquez,2020-10-15 Mapping literature from Spanish speaking sub Saharan African and Afro Latinx Caribbean diasporas Decolonizing Diasporas argues that the works of diasporic writers and artists from Equatorial Guinea Puerto Rico the Dominican Republic and Cuba offer new worldviews that unsettle and dismantle the logics of colonial modernity With women of color feminisms and decolonial theory as frameworks Yomaira C Figueroa V squez juxtaposes Afro Latinx and Afro Hispanic diasporic artists analyzing work by Nelly Rosario Juan Tom s vila Laurel Trifonia Melibea Obono Donato Ndongo Junot Díaz Aracelis Girmay Loida Maritza Pérez Ernesto Quiñonez Christina Olivares Joaquín Mbomio Bacheng Ibeyi Daniel Jos Older and María Magdalena Campos Pons Figueroa V squez s study reveals the thematic conceptual and liberatory tools these artists offer when read in relation to one another Decolonizing Diasporas examines how themes of intimacy witnessing dispossession reparations and futurities are remapped in these works by tracing interlocking structures of oppression including public and intimate forms of domination sexual and structural violence sociopolitical and racial exclusion and the haunting remnants of colonial intervention Figueroa V squez contends that these diasporic literatures reveal violence but also forms of resistance and the radical potential of Afro futurities This study centers the cultural productions of peoples of African descent as Afro diasporic imaginaries that subvert coloniality and offer new ways to approach questions of home location belonging and justice

Consumerism and Prestige Anthony Enns,Bernhard Metz,2022-07-05 This anthology explores the relationships and interdependencies between literary production and distinctions of taste by examining how the material aspects of literary texts such as the cover binding typography and paper stock reflect or even determine their cultural status In many cases for example the distinctions between highbrow and lowbrow taste have little to do with the content of the texts themselves as books often function as markers of socioeconomic status like clothing or home décor One might even go so far as to say that the concept of literary taste is more closely related to fashion sense than critical judgment The anthology seeks to address this claim by examining how the tensions between consumerism and prestige reflect fundamental historical changes with regard to the development of technology literacy and social power

Macho Ethics Jason Cortés,2014-12-18 Masculinity is not a monolithic phenomenon but a historically discontinuous one a fabrication as it were of given cultural circumstances Because of its opacity and instability masculinity like more recognizable systems of oppression resists discernibility In Macho Ethics Masculinity and Self Representation in

Latino Caribbean Narrative Jason Cort s seeks to reveal the inner workings of masculinity in the narrative prose of four major Caribbean authors the Cuban Severo Sarduy the Dominican American Junot Díaz and the Puerto Ricans Luis Rafael Sánchez and Edgardo Rodríguez Juliá By exploring the relationship between ethics and authority the legacies of colonial violence the figure of the dictator the macho and the dandy the logic of the Archive the presence of Oscar Wilde and notions of trauma and mourning Macho Ethics fills a gap surrounding issues of power and masculinity within the Caribbean context and draws attention to what frequently remains invisible and unspoken The Oxford Handbook of Latino Studies Ilan

Stavans, 2020 At the beginning of the third decade of the 21st century the Latino minority the biggest and fastest growing in the United States is at a crossroads Is assimilation taking place in comparable ways to previous immigrant groups Are the links to the countries of origin being redefined in the age of contested globalism The Oxford Handbook of Latino Studies reflects on these questions offering a sweeping exploration of Latinas and Latinos complex experiences in the United States Twenty four essays discuss various aspects of Latino life and history from literature popular culture and music to religion philosophy and language identity The Fiction of Junot Díaz Heather Ostman, 2016-11-28 The influence of Latin American writers as well as other immigrant writers and their first generation peers has reframed the literary lens to include multiple views and codify the shift away from the tradition of white male writers who formed the core of the American literary canon for generations Junot Díaz is one of the most prominent and influential writers in contemporary American literature A first generation Dominican American the New Jersey native is at the forefront of a literary renaissance portraying the significant demographic shifts taking place in the United States In The Fiction of Junot Díaz Reframing the Lens Heather Ostman closely examines the linguistic popular culture and literary references woven throughout Díaz s fiction including the short story collections Drown and This Is How You Lose Her as well as the Pulitzer prize winning novel The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao Ostman also considers Díaz s work as it relates to issues of identity citizenship culture aesthetics language class gender and race By exploring how Díaz reframes the immigrant narrative highlighting his innovative linguistic and genre based approach Ostman provides crucial insights into how Díaz s writings relate to key issues in today s world The Fiction of Junot Díaz will be of interest to scholars and students of the immigrant experience as well as fans of this gifted writer Latinx Revolutionary Horizons Renee Hudson, 2024-05-07 A necessary reconceptualization of Latinx identity literature and politics In Latinx Revolutionary Horizons Renee Hudson theorizes a liberatory latinidad that is not yet here and conceptualizes a hemispheric project in which contemporary Latinx authors return to earlier moments of revolution Rather than viewing Latinx as solely a category of identification she argues for an expansive historicized sense of the term that illuminates its political potential Claiming the x in Latinx as marking the suspension and tension between how Latin American descended people identify and the future politics the x points us toward Hudson contends that latinidad can signal a politics grounded in shared struggles and histories rather than merely a mode of identification In this way Latinx Revolutionary Horizons reads against current calls for cancelling latinidad based on its presumed anti Black and anti Indigenous framework Instead she examines the not yet here of latinidad to investigate the connection between the revolutionary history of the Americas and the creation of new genres in the hemisphere from conversion narratives and dictator novels to neoslave narratives and testimonios By comparing colonialisms she charts a revolutionary genealogy across a range of movements such as the Mexican Revolution the Filipino People Power Revolution resistance to Trujillo in the Dominican Republic and the Cuban Revolution In pairing nineteenth century authors alongside contemporary Latinx ones Hudson examines a longer genealogy of Latinx resistance while expanding its literary canon from the works of Jos Rizal and Martin Delany to those of Julia Alvarez Jessica Hagedorn and Leslie Marmon Silko In imagining a truly transnational latinidad Latinx Revolutionary Horizons thus rewrites our understanding of the nationalist formations that continue to characterize Latinx Studies
