LaPlante, 2009-10-30 This memoir is a delightfully humorous account of a suburban homemaker's foray into the Old World in the wake of her husband's corporate transfer to Belgium. As a naive forty-something suffering from wanderlust despite never having taken a flight longer than a twenty-minute puddle hopper between Syracuse and Buffalo, the author was suddenly confronted with the necessity of moving herself and all her family's worldly possessions to a little town in Belgium. She was ready for this. Or so she thought. Given her propensity to attract trouble, think Lucy Ricardo, the author's great naivete leads her into many comic misadventures ranging from her attempt to smuggle thousands of dollars in pesetas through Spanish customs for a friend introducing the Mexican ambassador to a roomful of people by the wrong name, a faux pas that haunts her to this day, and finding her car missing in London when she goes on a wild shopping spree. Her husband once said that everytime she walks out the door he wonders if he'll ever see her again. And with good reason. But there are poignant and heartrending moments as well, such as a never-to-be-forgotten moment at Luxembourg War Memorial Cemetery and the gut-wrenching events that unfold at the infamous Berlin Wall. When the author finally returns stateside at the end of her husband's assignment, she was more savoir faire and worldly wise than when she came. Or was she? Even she is surprised by the answer to that question.

The Choice Point Joanna Grover, Jonathan Rhodes, 2023-06-20 Discover a scientifically proven method to overcome obstacles and make choices that lead us closer to our goals featuring a foreword by Martina Navratilova. When we choose to go to the gym at 6am, keep running that marathon, or stay up late to study, we are making conscious value-based decisions that help us fulfill our goals. But even though we know that daily good choices add up to healthy routines and strong results, these days it's just too easy to surrender to negative thoughts and old habits. How can we not? Enter Functional Imagery Training (FIT). Grounded in science, FIT helps us lengthen our Choice Point, that moment when we say to ourselves, "Am I going to make the healthy decision, or am I going to choose to take an action that I know will undermine my success?" Merging mindfulness, motivational interviewing, and cognitive behavioral therapy into a user-friendly model, the first non-academic book of its kind, The Choice Point grants us control of the decisions that define us. Jonathan Rhodes, a British psychologist, helped develop FIT, and Joanna Grover, an experienced therapist and coach, was the first person in the U.S. to be certified in FIT. Together they work where science meets imagination to achieve peak performance, and their tools help us get to the root of our motivation. They've trained Olympians, C-suite executives, and elite forces in the military to hack their autopilot systems and break records in their respective fields. The Choice Point is the roadmap they've built along the way, leading us from passengers to drivers of our own minds.

The Death of Tarelkin and Other Plays Александр Сухово-Кобылин, 1995 Sukhovo Kobylin's Trilogy Krechinsky's Wedding, The Case, and The Death of Tarelkin represent the sole literary legacy of their aristocratic author, whose involvement in a sensational murder case became one of the great scandals of mid-19th century Russian society. Out of the drama of his own life, Sukhovo Kobylin fashioned a trilogy of plays remarkable for the acidity of their satire against the tsarist bureaucracy and police It is not only for their pungent satire that the plays have continued to attract attention ever since They are above all splendidly theatrical and encompass not one but several different traditions of theatre from the well made play of Scribe to the absurd comedy of Gogol As for sheer stagecraft writes Price D S Mirsky in his A History of Russian Literature they have no rivals in Russian literary drama Harold B Segel is Professor of Slavic and Comparative Literature at Columbia University New York He is the author of ten books and numer British Farmer's Magazine ,1838
