Connections diagram

- How is a contract enforceable on the spot?
 - The contract is enforceable on the spot because the parties have a reputation to maintain. If they do not honor the contract, they will lose their reputation and thus their ability to do business in the future.
- How does reputation enforcement work?
 - Reputation enforcement works by creating a social norm that encourages parties to honor their contracts. If a party fails to honor a contract, they will be shamed and their reputation will be damaged. This shaming and damage to reputation will lead to a loss of business and thus a loss of wealth.
- How do reputation and trading affect the spot market?
 - Reputation and trading affect the spot market by creating a social norm that encourages parties to honor their contracts. This social norm is created by the fact that parties have a reputation to maintain. If they do not honor the contract, they will lose their reputation and thus their ability to do business in the future.
