Little Alfred, Another Lost Child Alfred H. Berger, 2007-11-27 Many readers of this book may feel at a loss to feel the real people and how they felt That is the purpose of telling it the way it was No fakery no embellishments just the raw straight from the hip truth This is not fiction this is fact No deep seated love or caring except for my grandmas and the Shermans may their goodness last for eternity no affection no deep looking into their souls for a little lost child nothing These foster parents were paid and it was a job just like any other job that's all it was for them I have no love or hate for these people it was something that just happened Nothing can change the past it is long gone one can only look back at it and try to remember the good times and forget sorrowful and hurting times This manuscript was submitted to a literary agent who liked it There was just one problem she wanted to change it give it more impact more pizzazz make it stand out even if it meant putting in fiction I didn't and wouldn't go for that If I wanted this manuscript to be fiction with all its embellishments I'd write it as such what you will be reading is my life through my eyes as a child with all its warts cuts bruises and ugliness It's not perfect it's life
