

The background image shows a table set up for an art lesson. On the left, there is a bag of white cotton balls and several bottles of acrylic paint in various colors (yellow, white, blue, black). In the center, there are some green sponges and a small white egg. On the right, there are more bottles of paint and a container of white glue. Scattered around the table are several small, square pieces of artwork. These artworks depict coastal scenes with waves crashing against a dark shore, rendered in a style that mimics Winslow Homer's painting 'The Great Day in Connecticut'. The text 'Elementary Art Lesson: Texture & Winslow Homer' is overlaid in the center of the image in a large, green, outlined font.
