STRATEGY FOR FINDING NEW BUSINESS And if you can invest a tiny amount of time and read my book here s what I promise you You ll realize new business development due to various factors mainly because of increased competition now requires more effort than in the past and cold calling on its own won t get you to your goal See Chapter 2 You will also realize that getting a high value prospect s attention now requires marketing and specialized effort smart employers recognize this and are adapting See Chapter 4 How Those smart employers invest in lead generation marketing and if you work for one who doesn t whose sole NBD strategy is to hire more salespeople and make more cold calls eventually their growth will stall or slow to a trickle And they ll have an increasingly tough time attracting and keeping talented people like you See Chapter 10 If you don t work for someone who invests in lead generation it s okay don t panic You can learn how to generate your own leads and develop valuable skills that will turn you into a selling assassin for the rest of your life and reading this book is a good start See Chapter 11 Also you will discover at least one new book I mentioned several that had a big impact on me that will end up having a big impact on your future See Chapter 20 Just imagine you will go from cold calling to following up or responding to client inquiries While also positioning yourself as not just another salesperson but as an authority in your field You will not spend any of your precious time prospecting rather you will be implementing and testing different marketing campaigns And most importantly you will have more time to dazzle those clients already willing to meet with you and existing customers which represents your greatest source of growth and profit Secrets and Lies

Nicky Hager,Bob Burton,2000 What can Americans concerned about the environment learn about a campaign to promote clearcutting in New Zealand This book offers a playbook for a PR effort that could take place anywhere and demonstrates the lengths logging firms and governments will go to get what they want It s a blueprint for an end run around democracy in New Zealand in Europe in the United States Most of us have no way of knowing what goes on behind the news what isn t true what we are not being told and who is pulling the strings This book changes that Using the example of environmental controversy in this case logging of West Coast native forests by the New Zealand state owned Timberlands West Coast Nicky Hager and Bob Burton have produced a remarkable expose of how governments and business interests can use public relations to manipulate political debate The story that emerges of unscrupulous PR tactics by the international PR firm Shandwick and a casual policy of telling the public what is useful rather than what is true serves as a warning and an example of the same forces at work in the United States Using hundreds of pages of internal PR documents that were leaked by insiders offended at what they saw happening Secrets and Lies provides a unique window on how PR muscle can steamroll public opinion We see Timberlands systematically attacking critics arranging the creation of an independent pro logging community group cultivating allies in academia government and environmental groups compromising the independence of politicians and journalists and much more all for the unworthy cause of keeping native forest logging going after most New Zealanders believed it should end Sponsor ,1952 Cover Letters that Will Get You the Job You Want Stanley
