Dr. Wonderful Employer
Assistant Superintendent – Great School District
111 Street
AnyTown, AnyState 11111

Dear Dr. Employer:

Thank you very much for the opportunity to interview for the Special Education Teacher position with your school district on January 12, 2013. I enjoyed meeting with you and Ms. Employer#2, and I especially enjoyed learning more about the challenge and opportunities this position has to offer.

My enthusiasm for the position has been strengthened considerably as a result of my interview with you, and I am confident my education and experiences continue to match those required of your posted position. As you may recall from my interview, my experiences as a student teacher with the Marquette School District and my volunteer experiences have given me the knowledge necessary to meet the growing demands of this position and your school district, and I am confident I will be able to make significant contributions to your students

I would like to take this opportunity to reiterate my very strong interest in the position and in working with you and your staff. Please feel free to contact me at (OUR PHONE NUMBER) if I can provide you with any additional information. Again, thank you for your time and consideration, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Marvin A. Student

Adapting Early Childhood Curricula for Children in Inclusive Settings Ruth E. Cook, Annette Tessier, M. Diane Klein, 1996 This comprehensive book takes a non-categorical approach to preparing future early childhood teachers to help infants and young children with disabilities meet their challenges and develop to their fullest potential The result is a versatile and compelling resource of field experience Coverage is organized around four themes how all young children learn children in the context of their family traditional developmental domains and the need to take a synthesized view of the whole child Dozens of developmentally appropriate activity-based strategies for adapting curriculum to suit both children and their families are provided in every chapter For future early childhood education teachers who will work with exceptional children and need to focus on special needs rather than special labels Adapting Early Childhood Curricula for Children with Special Needs Ruth E. Cook, Annette Tessier, Virginia B. Armbruster, 1987 His comprehensive practical book is built on solid theory and evidence-based practices from both the fields of Special Education and Early Childhood Education When the first edition was conceived in 1980 the authors encountered students who either had a strong special education background or a strong early childhood child development background Each group had a lot to learn from the other and a lot to contribute to the other The original purpose was to bring together the best from both fields into Early Childhood Special Education The book continues to take a practical activity-based approach that is theoretically sound and current It also provides ample detail related to specific intervention strategies that enhance the effective use of embedded learning opportunities within daily curriculum activities and routines Its relatively jargon-free readable approach that is built on evidence-based practices make it appropriate for a wide range of readers The illustrations of techniques and strategies throughout make it sustainable as a resource It has always encouraged a family centered inclusive approach to working with young children with special needs and their families Mountain Life and Work, 1979 Adapting Early Childhood Curricula Ruth E.
