Stilwell, 2005 Afterlife argues that proper conduct was believed essential for determining one's post mortem judgment from the earliest periods in ancient Egypt and Greece Part one examines Plato's eschatological myths regarding conduct as it affects one's afterlife fate Part two traces the evolution of afterlife beliefs from Homer to the Dramatists and demonstrates that post mortem reward and retribution based on one's conduct is already found in Homer Pythagoreanism and Orphism further develop the afterlife beliefs that will have such enormous impact on Plato and later Christianity The third part examines Egyptian religious texts of the 5th to 18th Dynasties for their understanding of virtues and vices that have afterlife consequences In part four the relationship between behavior and the afterlife beliefs of both societies are compared In the earliest periods the afterlife texts appear to be concerned only with the elite the king in Egypt s Pyramid Texts and the heroes in Homeric Greece Nevertheless we show that from the earliest times both societies believed that the gods primarily Maat in Egypt and Dike in Greece were responsible for the proper ordering of the cosmos and anyone s violations of that order would reap the direst consequence the loss of a beneficent afterlife

When Death Falls Apart Hannah Gould, 2023-12-11 In a remote area of Awaji Island the grave of the graves ohaka no haka houses the material artifacts of Japan s discarded death rights In the past the Japanese dead would be transformed into ancestors through years of ritual offerings in the home at Buddhist altars called butsudan But in twenty first century Japan this intergenerational system of care is rapidly collapsing due to falling birthrates secularization and economic downturn And so down the mountainside wooden Buddhist statues and altars burn on carefully tended bonfires displaced from their domestic sites of honor Though once present in nearly every Japanese home butsudan are increasingly spurned by younger generations Through the lens of this domestic altar Gould asks What happens when religious technology becomes obsolete In noisy carpentry studios flashy funeral showrooms the messy houses of widowers and the cramped kitchens where women prepare memorial feasts Gould traces the butsudan alongside the Buddhist lifecycle exploring how they are made circulate within religious and funerary economies come to mediate intimate exchanges between the living and the dead fall into disuse and maybe are remade Gould suggests how this form might be reborn for the modern world 3D printed altars inspired by sleek Scandinavian design and new materials that embrace impermanence and decay such as in green burial Read against a long tradition of intergenerational memorialization Japan s contemporary deathscape offers a case study in a new kind of necrosociality based in transitory experiences that seek to disentangle the world of the living from that of the dead

Last Stands Michael Walsh,2020-12-01 A philosophical and spiritual defense of the premodern world of the tragic view of physical courage and of masculinity and self sacrifice in an age when those ancient virtues are too often caricatured and dismissed Victor Davis Hanson Award winning author Michael Walsh celebrates the masculine attributes of heroism that forged American civilization and Western culture by exploring historical battles in which soldiers chose death over dishonor in Last Stands Why Men Fight When All Is Lost In our contemporary era men are increasingly denied their heritage as warriors A survival instinct that s part of the human condition the drive to wage war is natural Without war the United States would not exist The technology that has eased manual labor extended lifespans and become an integral part of our lives and culture has often evolved from wartime scientific advancements War is necessary to defend the social and political principles that define the virtues and freedoms of America and other Western nations We should not be ashamed of the heroes who sacrificed their lives to build a better world We should be honoring them The son of a Korean War veteran of the Inchon landing and the battle of the Chosin Reservoir with the U S Marine Corps Michael Walsh knows all about heroism valor and the call of duty that requires men to fight for something greater than themselves to protect their families fellow countrymen and most of all their fellow soldiers In Last Stands Walsh reveals the causes and outcomes of more than a dozen battles in which a small fighting force refused to surrender to a far larger force often dying to the last man From the Spartans defiance at Thermopylae and Roland s epic defense of Charlemagne s rear guard at Ronceveaux Pass through Santa Anna s siege of the Alamo defended by Davy Crockett and Jim Bowie to the skirmish at Little Big Horn between Crazy Horse s Sioux nation and George Armstrong Custer s Seventh Calvary to the Soviets titanic struggle against the German Wehrmacht at Stalingrad and more Walsh reminds us all of the debt we owe to heroes willing to risk their lives against overwhelming odds and how these sacrifices and battles are not only a part of military history but our common civilizational heritage

The Language of Battered Women Carol L. Winkelmann, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2005 Outstanding Book Award presented by the Organization for the Study of Communication Language and Gender OSCLG This study of battered women living in a shelter offers a rhetorical analysis of survivors personal theologies Author Carol L Winkelmann holds that while it is virtually ignored in the domestic violence literature the Christian heritage of many battered women plays a significant if complicated role in their language thoughts and lives The women s religious faith serves not only to sustain them through periods of profound suffering but also to develop solidarity with other culturally different women in the shelter Designed to assist women to greater independence the shelter actually functions as a culture of surveillance where women turn to one another and to their faith to cope with the trauma of violence To heal the women engage in dialogue that is dense in religious imagery talking about the relationship of God and the church to suffering and evil At the same time these women also acknowledge that organized religion is very much involved in the maintenance of patriarchal marriage and its attendant abuses in their own lives Together battered women are sometimes able to construct creative theological responses to the problem of suffering and evil A mix of religious and secular languages compels them to devise new ways of thinking about their role in family church and society Full Circle Ferdinand Mount,2010-05-27 So much about the society that is now emerging in the twenty first century bears an astonishing resemblance to the most prominent features of what we call the classical world its institutions its priorities its entertainment its physics its sexual morality its food its politics even its religion The ways in which we live our rich and varied lives correspond almost eerily so to the ways in which the Greeks and Romans lived theirs Whether we are eating and drinking bathing or exercising or making love pondering admiring or enquiring our habits of thought and action our diversions and concentrations recreate theirs It is as though the 1500 years after the fall of Rome had been time out from traditional ways of being human This eye opening book makes us look afresh at who we are and how we got here Full Circle is not only wonderfully witty and brilliantly astute but also profound and often disquieting Ferdinand Mount effortlessly peels back 2000 years of history to show how much we are like the ancients how in ways both trivial and crucial we are them and they are us Every Dog Has His Day Méta Smith, Sean Brandon is every woman s fantasy He s devastatingly gorgeous with hypnotic hazel eyes a fit physique thanks to his years as a running back and he s a star on the hottest new all sports cable network But what most women don t realize until it s too late is that Sean is more than just a confirmed bachelor or a ladies man Sean is a bonafide dog Love em and leave em is his M O and he has no remorse about his bedroom escapades and the trail of broken hearts he leaves in his wake Sean will use anyone to get what he wants including his boss Ava Monroe the most powerful woman in media Then he meets the woman he never thought existed the one who might make him believe in love Ashley Kensington is gorgeous brilliant independent and happens to be the heiress to the billion dollar media conglomerate that employs him She s also Ava s biggest nemesis Soon Sean finds himself entangled in a love triangle with two women who refuse to lose one that could cost him everything he s worked for As the old saying goes every dog has his day and Sean s Brandon s day is coming This sexy page turning tale of jealousy obsession revenge and the path to redemption is the 7th novel by international best selling author Meta Smith Women Reclaiming the City Tigran Haas,2023-04-04 The originality of Women Reclaiming the City lies not only in the variety of themes being presented but also in the variety of all these different highly respected women researchers This book is the first in which current societal
