Whole Church Mel Lawrenz, 2009-06-03 Praise for Whole Church Mel is a thoughtful analyst of church life today Best of all he actually does what he writes about This book can lead to new levels of engagement for your church John Ortberg author and pastor Menlo Park Presbyterian Church Mel Lawrenz's vision of a local church that actually reflects the wholeness and beauty of God as it engages with the Lord one another and the community is a much needed call back to God's original Plan A a plan that has too often been cast aside in the name of specialization church growth and expediency Larry Osborne North Coast Church and author Sticky Church and Spirituality for the Rest of Us Wow This book is for every Christian leader who wants to move their church from a narrow self focus to active engagement in the world with all the resources and possibilities of heaven Mike Slaughter Ginghamburg

Church While Mel Lawrenz's four kinds of engagement aims at congregational application it also creates a template that individual Jesus followers can use for self evaluation of what it means to be the church today The final dynamics section is worth the price of admission for church leaders Reggie McNeal author The Present Future and Missional Renaissance Having known Mel Lawrenz for thirty five years in various capacities as student intern colleague and eventual successor as senior pastor of Elmbrook Church I can testify to his keen mind his profound respect for and knowledge of history his forward looking curiosity and his undoubted communication gifts Add all these to his many years as a seasoned practitioner of church ministry and the result is this very helpful book Whole Church Stuart Briscoe author Flowing Streams and broadcaster Telling the Truth

Pivot Scot McKnight, Laura Barringer, 2023-09 After the release of their groundbreaking book A Church Called Tov which recorded the stories of abuse and toxic church cultures at some of the most prominent churches in the United States New Testament scholar and blogger for Christianity Today Scot McKnight and Laura Barringer heard from a flood of people who had experienced similar instances of abuse After all they've seen and heard they still believe it's possible for church cultures to be transformed from toxic to tov from oppressive to good In Pivot Scot and Laura help churches to implement practices establish priorities and cultivate the Kingdom Gospel centered qualities that form goodness cultures Readers will find answers to the four most common questions people have about culture transformation How can I transform the culture in my church or organization to make it tov I believe my workplace has unhealthy values How do I initiate change How do I unleash a culture of goodness in my ministry I'm not in a position of church leadership What are some red flags that indicate a toxic culture and what can I do if I see them

Transforming Service Shonda R. Jones, Pamela R. Lightsey, 2020-05-18 Transforming Service is a seminal book developed by student services professionals in theological education This edited volume is new and innovative in that it puts the student services professional and their work with divinity students center stage Amid the various and serious changes afoot within the church and academy there is a need for astute and perceptive expertise to assist professionals and institutions in transforming how to reach serve and sustain graduate students in theological education This book is an offering designed to establish and sustain conversations among student services professionals in theological schools about the nature of the profession and to share wisdom within a rich community of practice that is essential to the success of theological schools With its rich combination of useful information reflective instruction on a host of professional leadership issues and animated narratives on the ways different colleagues address common practices and challenges in their context Transforming Service is a needed resource to all who engage in theological education

Sustaining Grace Scott J. Hagley, Karen Rohrer, Michael Gehrling, 2020-06-30 Sustaining Grace explores the dynamic between new faith communities and denominational systems through the lens of stewardship and sustainability As a collection these essays suggest that to facilitate ecologies for innovation in our current era established congregations and new faith communities must model the sustaining grace of God to one another in creative ways Thus problems of sustainability are not for church planters to solve alone but rather are related to the theologies of stewardship and the ecclesial system to which they belong Issues of vision are not for denominational systems to theorize alone but are given shape on their historic foundations in the creative and prophetic structures practiced in new faith communities This book speaks to a central tension in the growing movement of church planting the mutual need of and the mutual frustration between establishment leaders and innovators conservators and risk takers Standing at the contact point of that tension in one of the wealthiest mainline denominations 1001 New Worshipping Communities and Pittsburgh Theological Seminary engage the question of faithful stewardship with voices reflecting and strategizing on each side of the tension broadening the conversation to include those beyond the Presbyterian Church and bringing both the academy and practitioners from church judicatories church plants and traditional church communities to offer a theologically grounded practical and generative conversation
