Inside Marketing Detlev Zwick, Julien Cayla, 2011-02-24 The intensification of marketing activities in recent years has led the public to become much more aware of its role as consumers Yet the increased visibility of marketing materials and associated messages in everyday life is in contrast with the often little understood inner workings of the marketing profession itself despite the widespread recognition of marketers as key agents in shaping the face of global capitalism Inside Marketing offers a theoretically informed critical perspective on contemporary marketing practice and its growing cultural economic and political influence worldwide This book brings together leading scholars and practitioners from the fields of business history economic sociology and cultural anthropology to analyse the inner workings and outer effects of marketing as a material social practice an ideology and a technique Their work raises some important and timely questions How has marketing transformed the pharmaceutical industry and what are the consequences for our lives How does marketing influence the way we think of progress and modernity How has marketing changed the way we think of childhood And how does marketing appropriate the creativity of consumers for profit This book offers scholars policy makers and practitioners a theoretical and conceptual understanding of how marketing works as a cultural institution and as an ideology

The Service-Dominant Logic of Marketing Robert F. Lusch, Stephen L. Vargo, 2014-12-18 Expanding on the editors award winning article Evolving to a New Dominant Logic for Marketing this book presents a challenging new paradigm for the marketing discipline This new paradigm is service oriented customer oriented relationship focused and knowledge based and places marketing once viewed as a support function central to overall business strategy Service dominant logic defines service as the application of competencies for the benefit of another entity and sees mutual service provision rather than the exchange of goods as the proper subject of marketing It moves the orientation of marketing from a market to philosophy where customers are promoted to targeted and captured to a market with philosophy where the customer and supply chain partners are collaborators in the entire marketing process The editors elaborate on this model through an historical analysis clarification and extension of service dominant logic and distinguished marketing thinkers then provide further insight and commentary The result is a more comprehensive and inclusive marketing theory that will challenge both current thinking and marketing practice
