The Angolite The Prison News Magazine:

Angolite ,2003 Instrument of the State Benjamin J. Harbert,2023 Louisiana State Penitentiary is one of the largest and most brutal maximum security prisons in the United States Built on the grounds of a former plantation the prison is commonly referred to as Angola apropos of the country of origin for many of the enslaved people who inhabited the land Despite notoriously inhumane conditions within the prison people incarcerated at Angola have sustained a rich and dynamic musical legacy since the late nineteenth century attracting folklorists such as John and Alan Lomax and Harry Oster Well known musicians including Huddie William Lead Belly Ledbetter Charles Neville and James Booker played a part in this history in addition to a litany of others who proved vital to the prison s musical culture but for various reasons were unable to establish their careers upon release In Instrument of the State author Benjamin J Harbert interweaves oral history and archival research to show how incarcerated musicians find small but essential freedoms by performing jazz R B country gospel rock and fusion throughout the Twentieth Century In doing so he expands folkloric definitions of prison music considering the ways in which music manifests among the incarcerated and the prison s administration as a lens to better understand state power and the fragments of hope and joy that remain in its wake Instrument of the State acts as an indictment of the carceral state highlighting the many ways in which the US penal system disproportionately affects African American people through desperate profiteering of a deliberately underfunded state agency Prison Theatre and the Global Crisis of Incarceration Ashley E. Lucas,2020-09-03 Obscured behind concrete and razor wire the lives of the incarcerated remain hidden from public view Inside the walls imprisoned people all over the world stage theatrical productions that enable them to assert their humanity and capabilities Prison Theatre and the Global Crisis of Incarceration offers a uniquely international account and exploration of prison theatre By discussing a range of performance practices tied to incarceration this book examines the ways in which arts practitioners and imprisoned people use theatre as a means to build communities attain professional skills create social change and maintain hope Ashley Lucas s writing offers a distinctive blend of storytelling performance analysis travelogue and personal experience as the child of an incarcerated father Distinct examples of theatre performed in prisons are explored throughout the main text and also in a section of Critical Perspectives by international scholars and practitioners Race and Masculinity in Contemporary American Prison Novels Auli Ek,2020-10-28 This book offers an interdisciplinary analysis of how contemporary American prison narratives reflect and produce ideologies of masculinity in the United States and in so doing compellingly engages popular culture in order to demonstrate the profound ways in which implicit understandings of prison life shape all Americans and their reactions to people both incarcerated and not Prison Capital Lydia Pelot-Hobbs,2023-11-28 Every year between 1998 to 2020 except one Louisiana had the highest per capita rate of incarceration in the nation and thus the world This is the first detailed account of Louisiana s unprecedented turn to mass incarceration from 1970 to 2020 Through extensive research Lydia Pelot

Hobbs illuminates how policy makers enlarged Louisiana's carceral infrastructures with new prisons and jail expansions alongside the bulking up of police and prosecutorial power. At the same time these infrastructures were the products of multiscalar crises: the swings of global oil capitalism, liberal federal court and policy interventions, the rise of neoliberal governance and law and order austerity and racist and patriarchal moral panics surrounding crime. However, these crises have also created fertile space for anticarceral social movements. From incarcerated people filing conditions of confinement lawsuits and Angola activists challenging life without parole to grassroots organizers struggling to shrink the New Orleans jail following Hurricane Katrina and LGBTQ youth of color organizing against police sexual violence, grassroots movements stretch us toward new geographies of freedom in the lineage of abolition democracy. Understanding Louisiana's carceral crisis extends our understanding of the interplay between the crises of mass criminalization and racial capitalism while highlighting the conditions of possibility for dismantling carceral power in all its forms.

The Angola Prison Seminary

Michael Hallett, Joshua Hays, Byron R. Johnson, Sung Joon Jang, Grant Duwe, 2016-08-05. Corrections officials faced with rising populations and shrinking budgets have increasingly welcomed faith-based providers offering services at no cost to help meet the needs of inmates. Drawing from three years of on-site research, this book utilizes survey analysis along with life history interviews of inmates and staff to explore the history, purpose, and functioning of the Inmate Minister program at Louisiana State Penitentiary, aka Angola, America's largest maximum security prison. This book takes seriously attributions from inmates that faith is helpful for surviving prison and explores the implications of religious programming for an American corrections system in crisis, featuring high recidivism, dehumanizing violence, and often draconian punishments. A first of its kind prototype in a quickly expanding policy arena, Angola's unique Inmate Minister program deploys trained graduates of the New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in bi-vocational pastoral service roles throughout the prison. Inmates lead their own congregations and serve in lay ministry capacities in hospice, cell block visitation, delivery of familial death notifications to fellow inmates, sidewalk counseling, and tier ministry, officiating inmate funerals and delivering care packages to indigent prisoners. Life history interviews uncover deep level change in self-identity corresponding with a growing body of research on identity change and religiously motivated desistance. The concluding chapter addresses concerns regarding the First Amendment, the dysfunctional state of U.S. corrections, and directions for future research.

Jailhouse Journalism

James McGrath Morris, 2017-07-12. In the 1980s alone, some 100 periodicals were published by and for inmates of America's prisons. Unlike their peers who passed their sentences stamping out license plates, these convicts spent their days like reporters in any community looking for the story. Yet their own story, the lengthy history of their unique brand of journalism, remained largely unknown. In this volume, James McGrath Morris seeks to address the history of this medium, the lives of the men and women who brought it to life, and the controversies that often surround it.

The Jailhouse Lawyer

Calvin Duncan, Sophie Cull, 2025-07-08. Duncan's story is so incredible it strains belief. It is so heartwarming and hopeful that it will stay with you for a long time John Grisham This brilliantly told story at once maddening and miraculous is among the most powerful indictments of our criminal justice system I've ever read James Forman Jr A searing and ultimately hopeful account of Calvin Duncan the most extraordinary jailhouse lawyer of our time Sister Helen Prejean and his thirty year path through Angola after a wrongful murder conviction his coming of age as a legal mind while imprisoned and his continued advocacy for those on the inside Calvin Duncan was nineteen when he was incarcerated for a 1981 New Orleans murder he didn't commit The victim of a wildly incompetent public defense system and a badly compromised witness Duncan was left to rot in the waking nightmare of confinement Armed with little education he took matters into his own hands At twenty one he filed his first motion from prison Motion for a Law Book which launched his highly successful self taught legal career Trapped within this wholly corrupted system Duncan became a legal advocate for himself and his fellow prisoners as an inmate counsel at the infamous Louisiana State Penitentiary Angola Literature sustained his hope as he learned the law in its shadow During his decades of incarceration Duncan helped hundreds of other prisoners navigate their cases advocating for those the state had long since written off He taught a class in the midst of Angola to empower other incarcerated men to fight for their own justice under the law But his own case remained stalled A defense lawyer once responded to Duncan's request for documents You are not a person Criminal justice reform advocate Sophie Cull met Duncan after he was finally released from prison he began to tell her his story Together they've written a bracing condemnation of the criminal legal system and an intimate portrait of a heroic and brilliant man's resilience in the face of injustice Race Hate Anne Rooney, 2010 Race Hate takes a broad minded look at prejudices that not only affect our lives today but have also been in place for many hundreds of years It explores subjects such as what race is and why it matters racial violence against individuals and whole populations and how different people of different races perceive immigration Corrections: The Essentials Mary K. Stohr, Anthony

Walsh, 2015-01-06 Corrections The Essentials is a comprehensive yet compact version of corrections by two esteemed authors who are experts in the field The text addresses the most important topics in corrections in a shorter and more cost effective format The Second Edition continues to cover the history development and future of corrections as well as provides new coverage of Ethics and the Death Penalty The book's brevity makes it an excellent core textbook that can easily be supplemented with additional reading materials Corrections Mary K. Prison Truth William J. Drummond, 2020-01-07 San Quentin State Prison California's oldest prison and the nation's largest is notorious for once holding America's most dangerous prisoners But in 2008 the Bastille by the Bay became a beacon for rehabilitation through the prisoner run newspaper the San Quentin News Prison Truth tells the story of how prisoners many serving life terms transformed the prison climate from what Johnny Cash called a living hell to an environment that fostered positive change in inmates lives Award winning journalist William J Drummond takes us behind bars introducing us to Arnulfo Garc a the visionary prisoner who led the revival of the newspaper Drummond describes how the San Quentin News after a twenty year shutdown was recalled to life under an enlightened warden and the small group of local retired newspaper veterans serving as advisers which Drummond joined in 2012 Sharing how officials cautiously and often unwittingly allowed the newspaper to tell the stories of the incarcerated Prison Truth illustrates the power of prison media to humanize the experiences of people inside penitentiary walls and to forge alliances with social justice networks seeking reform

A Courageous Fool Todd C. Peppers, Margaret A. Anderson, 2021-04-30 There have been many heroes and victims in the battle to abolish the death penalty and Marie Deans fits into both of those categories A South Carolina native who yearned to be a fiction writer Marie was thrust by a combination of circumstances including the murder of her beloved mother in law into a world much stranger than fiction a world in which minorities and the poor were selected to be sacrificed to what Supreme Court Justice Harry Blackmun called the machinery of death Marie found herself fighting to bring justice to the legal process and to bring humanity not only to prisoners on death row but to the guards and wardens as well During Marie s time as a death penalty opponent in South Carolina and Virginia she experienced the highs of helping exonerate the innocent and the lows of standing death watch in the death house with thirty four condemned men We Are Not Slaves Robert T.
