

Homework Questions 1

How effective was the Treaty of Commerce?

The Treaty of Commerce, which was finally that created four years of fighting in North Africa. The Treaty was signed by Germany and the Allied Nations on June 28, 1919, formally ending World War One. The terms of the treaty required that Germany pay financial reparations, disarm, lose territory, and give up all of the overseas colonies. At the time it was implemented ending War 1 War 2 had brought millions for years of Germany starting World War 2 20 years later.

Homework Questions 2

Choose two of the historians and explain their points of view and what they said

Mr. Max Hastings- military historian

Hastings perspective is that Germany started World War 1. Hastings says that he doesn't believe that Britain, America or France started WW1 and that Germany is the only one that should be held accountable. His argument is that Germany started only country with that power to start a war in July 1914 by announcing its intent to support for Austria's invasion of Serbia.

Dr. Richard J. Evans- English professor of history, University of Cambridge

J Evans perspective is that Britain is responsible for starting World War 1. His argument is that because of Britain's involvement and participation, other European countries found this acceptable and they could've made a deal in World War 1. Also, the explosion from the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, maybe this event started the war and not really killed by it itself.
