

The background image shows a highly detailed, dark-stained wooden structure, possibly a church altar or a large crucifix. It features a semi-circular arch at the top with a row of golden, rounded ornaments. Below the arch, there is a central panel with two vertical columns of Roman numerals. The top column contains III, IV, V, VI, VII, and VIII. The bottom column contains IX and X. A banner with Latin text is draped across the bottom of the central panel. The entire structure is set against a light-colored wall.

Seven Deadly Sins of Dying Churches William G. Justice, 2009-10 The church insists that Christians are people who have been converted regenerated born anew and set free from the habitual practice of sin Whereas the church should be expected to positively influence society the degenerating North American society is clearly influencing the church Since Christians have been taught to love one another we want to believe that we live by a higher moral ethical code than non Christians But something s wrong Among the pieces of evidence the divorce rate of 50% among the general population in the U S is even higher in the church Seventy five percent of all family sexual abuse occurs in religious homes Ninety seven percent of all persons confined to our prisons claim to be religious on the day they are first confined Some of the major Christian bodies in the USA are already dying While the population grows church attendance declines The author attempts to reduce the reasons that many churches have lost their life transforming influence on their members to seven deadly sins The author believes that churches must repent from these sins if it is to do more than merely survive and if it is to conduct Christ s redemptive ministry to the world

Sinning Like a Christian William H. Willimon, 2005 The seven deadly sins are a well known topic but little has been written about them in recent years from a critical theological viewpoint Willimon helps readers take an unflinching look at and talk about the meaning and substance of sin Study questions are included

Hit List Brian G. Hedges,2014-11-01 The Christian life is a war and one of your most lethal enemies hangs its helmet inside your heart This infernal internal enemy is sin which even after new birth continues to reside in every believer As followers of Jesus we've been given a simple mission regarding sin search and destroy Put it to death But in the words of Cornelius Plantinga Jr sin has a thousand faces It is one thing to oppose sin in principle quite another to actually do the bloody work of crucifying specific sin patterns in our lives Sometimes these patterns are difficult to detect Always they fight back tooth and nail mounting vehement resistance in counter maneuvers of a variety and complexity that would send General Schwarzkopf's mind spinning like a tilt a whirl The most famous faces of sin are the Seven Deadly Sins pride envy wrath sloth greed gluttony and lust Not merely corrupting vices in themselves these seven are gateway sins leading to countless others They are the leading undercover operatives for the world the flesh and the devil that evil complex of powers arrayed against our souls And while we may recognize these sins by their names we are often misled by the subtlety of their methods and ways These sins are masters of disguise adept at masking their true nature
