I was reading a family history of a family far more interesting than mine Edmund White author of Our Young Man A rich intimate embrace of Capri which was a magnet for artistic renegades and a place of erotic refuge Isolated and arrestingly beautiful the island of Capri has been a refuge for renegade artists and writers fleeing the strictures of conventional society from the time of Augustus who bought the island in 29 BC after defeating Antony and Cleopatra to the early twentieth century when the poet and novelist Jacques d Adelsw rd Fersen was in exile there after being charged with corrupting minors to the 1960s when Truman Capote spent time on the island We also meet the Marquis de Sade Goethe Mark Twain Oscar Wilde Compton Mackenzie Rilke Lenin and Gorky among other astonishingly vivid characters Grounded in a deep intimacy with Capri and full of captivating anecdotes Jamie James s Pagan Light tells how a tiny island served as a wildly permissive haven for people queer criminal sick marginalized and simply crazy who had nowhere else to go Emily Windsnap's

Denise Schaeffer,2015-06-13 In Rousseau on Education Freedom and Judgment Denise Schaeffer challenges the common view of Rousseau as primarily concerned with conditioning citizens passions in order to promote republican virtue and unreflective patriotism Schaeffer argues that to the contrary Rousseau s central concern is the problem of judgment and how to foster it on both the individual and political level in order to create the conditions for genuine self rule Offering a detailed commentary on Rousseau s major work on education Emile and a wide ranging analysis of the relationship between Emile and several of Rousseau s other works Schaeffer explores Rousseau s understanding of what good judgment is how it is learned and why it is central to the achievement and preservation of human freedom The model of Rousseauian citizenship that emerges from Schaeffer s analysis is more dynamic and self critical than is often recognized This book demonstrates the importance of Rousseau s contribution to our understanding of the faculty of judgment and more broadly invites a critical reevaluation of Rousseau's understanding of education, citizenship and both individual and collective freedom

The Wayfinders Wade Davis, 2009-10-01 Every culture is a unique answer to a fundamental question: What does it mean to be human and alive? In The Wayfinders, renowned anthropologist and winner of the prestigious Samuel Johnson Prize and National Geographic Explorer in Residence Wade Davis leads us on a thrilling journey to celebrate the wisdom of the world's indigenous cultures. In Polynesia we set sail with navigators whose ancestors settled the Pacific ten centuries before Christ. In the Amazon we meet the descendants of a true lost civilization, the Peoples of the Anaconda. In the Andes we discover that the earth really is alive. While in Australia we experience Dreamtime, the all-embracing philosophy of the first humans to walk out of Africa. We then travel to Nepal where we encounter a wisdom hero, a Bodhisattva who emerges from forty-five years of Buddhist retreat and solitude. And finally we settle in Borneo where the last rainforest nomads struggle to survive. Understanding the lessons of this journey will be our mission for the next century. For at risk is the human legacy, a vast archive of knowledge and expertise, a catalogue of the imagination. Rediscovering a new appreciation for the diversity of the human spirit as expressed by culture is among the central challenges of our time.

Note for Note (Another Pentateuch) - Book 5: Scatter Marcus M. Cornelius, 2015-03-25 Note for Note Book 5: Scatter sees the river finally reach the ocean roughly one thousand years after the events of Book 1. Plough: It is the modern era in which people move at increasing speed and with increasing sophistication and increasing brutality but essentially make the same choices as their ancestors did, although the context is absolutely different. There is a global transfer of goods of culture and of those displaced and seeking refuge, the extent of which has never been seen before, but to a large extent people have forgotten their connections with what has gone before, and this ignorance is a sometimes fatal disconnection. The lives of a would-be patron of the arts and his partner connect with the lives of another couple, a painter and a dancer in a harbour city where the mountain range also descends towards the ocean. These four people are further connected by the events that affect a homeless woman, a shoeshine man and a marginalised street artist. All of them are affected, knowingly or not, by the nature of events in the past, the influence of which changes the way each person's present comes into being in a blend of imagination, fantasy and substance. One of them will float out to sea.
