Sudarshana Mekala S Rao, Ramayana Revisited Vipul Maheshwari, Anil Maheshwari, 2020-10-18 Rama Maryada Purushottam the king of Ayodhya banished his beloved queen in whose chastity he had complete faith simply because his subjects disapproved of his accepting a wife who had spent a year in the house of her abductor The king submitted to the will of the people though it broke his heart Was his stand justified Could Manthara be held solely responsible for the banishment of Rama and the subsequent death of Dasharatha Was Ahalya an adulteress or a victim of sexual assault Did the actions of the serial molester Ravana stand legal scrutiny Was Lakshmana a prince of Ayodhya legally justified in mutilating Surpanakha Was his elder brother Rama an accomplice in that action It was said in ancient India a king who after having sworn to safeguard his subjects failed to protect should be executed like a mad dog Such a provision indicated that sovereignty was based on an implied social contract and if the king violated the traditional pact he forfeited his kingship So a king had to be just as justice trickled down from the crown What happens though if the events of yore are retold and characters made to stand trial in today's time Here is an attempt unexplored so far to retell the significant happenings narrated in the Ramayana through the legal prism of the Indian Penal Code Each chapter comprises a prosecution version citations of relevant provisions from the IPC deposition of witnesses and the defence argument Ramayana Revisited succeeds in bringing in all alternative perspectives leaving the final judgement to the discretion of the reader

The Chipewyan. The Western Woods Cree. The Sarsi Edward S. Curtis,1928 A comprehensive and permanent record of all the important tribes of the United States and Alaska that still retain to a considerable degree their primitive customs and traditions The value of such a work in great measure will lie in the breadth of its treatment in its wealth of illustration and in the fact that it represents the result of personal study of a people who are rapidly losing the traces of their aboriginal character and who are destined ultimately to become assimilated with the superior race It has been the aim to picture all features of the Indian life and environment types of the young and the old with their habitations industries ceremonies games and everyday customs Though the treatment accorded the Indians by those who lay claim to civilization and Christianity has in many cases been worse than criminal a rehearsal of these wrongs does not properly find a place here General introduction
