Southern Perspectives on the Post-2015 International Development Agenda Debapriya Bhattacharya,Andrea Ordóñez Llanos,2016-11-03 At the turn of the millennium the unanimous adoption of the Millennium Development Goals MDGs by the United Nations General Assembly marked a new chapter in international development However voices from the Global South were noticeably absent in shaping the agenda Fifteen years later the global context has changed so much that it would have been inconceivable not to have taken voices from the South into account when planning the new Sustainable Development Goals SDGs Since its inception in 2012 the Southern Voice on Post MDG International Development Goals Southern Voice a network of 48 think tanks from Africa Asia and Latin America has generated a substantial body of original research to feed into various aspects of the post 2015 development agenda such as the missing dimensions of the MDGs ways to mitigate existing challenges in delivering on aspired outcomes and new issues goals targets and indicators that are crucial for the next global development framework Southern Perspectives on the Post 2015 International Development Agenda consolidates this research and stitches together development realities and policy experiences from the Global South infusing unique local perspectives to the global debate on the post 2015 agenda The compendium addresses the overarching themes underpinning the new international development framework by focusing on issues such as sustainability and growth inclusion and social policies governance and capacities and financing of the new agenda Southern Voice seeks to challenge the knowledge asymmetry afflicting the global knowledge system by channelling evidence based policy analyses produced by centres of excellence located in the Global South This is a valuable resource for academics and researchers policymakers and practitioners and concerned students in search of alternative views on sustainable development Interstate Commerce

Kim, Gary Hendricks, 2011-12-01 India's civil service retirement benefit system based on a defined benefit scheme imposed an annual expenditure of over 30 billion on the central and state governments. In an effort to truncate the unfunded scheme which covers 30 million central and state government employees, the Government of India in 2004 decided to replace the traditional defined benefit scheme with a defined contributory scheme known as the New Pension Scheme. This book contains an account of the efforts of five states: Assam, Bihar, Chhattisgarh, Jharkhand, and Madhya Pradesh to estimate their current pension liabilities, project annual pension costs over the next 15-25 years, and explore options for managing their annual costs. Using newly constructed employee databases, the book discusses in detail the projections for each state and suggests cost-saving measures based on specific needs. Also included is a lengthy discussion of the lessons that emerged in database construction and practical recommendations in managing pension costs. Ethics in Governance in India Bidyut Chakrabarty, 2016-03-31 Governance and ethics are intertwined. A government functions within certain broad moral and ethical parameters integrally linked with the sociological foundation of the polity in which it is articulated. The importance of ethics in governance has acquired a significant place in contemporary theoretical discussion. This book situates ethics in governance in India in the national frame and incorporates the context of globalization, allowing for the increasing importance of non-state global actors in national decision-making. The author argues that a lack of ethics quickly turns into corruption and leads to governmental efforts to deal with it. He proposes that ethics are a set of standards that a society places on itself to articulate its responses to societal needs and discusses the efforts of the Indian government at eradicating corruption and its failure. A theoretical approach to the issues of ethics in governance and corruption, this book is of interest to academics in the fields of Asian Politics, in particular Indian politics and political philosophy. Indian Defence Review Oct-Dec 2012 Vol 27.4 Bharat Verma, 2013-09 In this volume: 1962 The Nehruvian Blunder, Taking on the Dragon Helicopters in Special Operations, China's Space Programme and Its Implications for India, Air Power against the Maoists, Military Application of Unmanned Rotary Wing Aircraft, Aerospace and Defence News, A British Appreciation, Could Tibet have been Defended, Higher Defence Management through Effective Civil-Military Relations, India and the South Asian Neighbourhood, Pretending Soldiers, Disputes in the South China Sea, SELLING POINTS.
