Bedford, MA 01730

Dear Ms. Kenney:

On behalf of The Home for Little Wanderers, please accept my gratitude for your donation of 125 "The Organizing Cheerleader" DVD's in support of the 2009 Home In One golf tournament. We are so grateful for your support of The Home and the work that we do for children and families in Massachusetts.

Since 1799, The Home has continued to provide a wide variety of services to vulnerable children and their families; nearly 1000 dedicated employees in over 30 programs care for 10,000 children, adolescents and families annually. The Home's services include residential programs and special education schools, clinical support, prevention, permanence (adoption/foster care) and system reform. Many of the children and adolescents served at The Home have emotional and/or behavioral challenges, often as a result of abuse or neglect suffered early in life. The Home's focus is to provide a continuum of care for these individuals in order to ensure their healthy development and growth while working with them to overcome seemingly insurmountable difficulties.

With your continued support The Home is able to offer them the things they need the most: nurturing, security, hope, respect, self-esteem and love. Thank you again for helping us to continue this important work; we hope that you will think of us in your future philanthropic efforts!

Sincerely,

Joan Wallace-Benjamin, Ph.D.
President and CEO

P.S. For your accounting purposes, please note that The Home did not provide any goods or services to you in exchange for your donation. If you have any questions, please call Jamille Benson, Special Events Manager, at (617) 927-0682 or email her at jbenson@thehome.org.
