9/11 Fiction, Empathy, and Otherness Tim Gauthier,2015-04-02 9 11 Fiction Empathy and Otherness analyzes recent works of fiction whose principal subject is the attacks of September 11 2001 The readings of the novels question and assess the validity and potential effectiveness of both the subsequent calls for a cosmopolitan outlook and the related but no less significant emphasis placed on empathy and exhibited in such recent studies as Jeremy Rifkin s The Empathic Civilization Karsten Stueber s Rediscovering Empathy and Julinna Oxley s The Moral Dimensions of Empathy As such this study examines the extent to which us and them narratives proliferated after 9 11 and the degree to which calls for greater empathy and a renewed emphasis on cosmopolitan values served to counterbalance an apparent movement towards increased polarization encapsulated in the oft mentioned clash of civilizations A principal objective of the book is thus to examine the ethical and political implications revealed in the exercising or withholding of empathy For though empathy in and of itself may not be sufficient it is nevertheless a vital component in the generation of actions one might identify as cosmopolitan In other words this book examines the responses to 9 11 in both Western and non Western novels in order to uncover what their dramatic renderings might tell us about the possibility of a truly globalized community The attainability of any cosmopolitan engagement is contingent upon our abilities to understand the other knowing always that otherness eludes our grasp and the best we can do is imagine some version of it It is primarily in this capacity that the novel has a role to play Whether it is the challenge of connecting with the survivors of trauma and the inhabitants of a traumatized city or with a hyperpower that has experienced its own vulnerability for the first time or even with the terrorist who seeks to commit violent acts these novels afford us the means of examining the complex dynamics involved in any exhibition of fellow feeling for the other and the ever present potential failure of that engagement

Transnational Politics in the Post-9/11 Novel Joseph Conte, 2019-11-22 Transnational Politics in the Post 9 11 Novel suggests that literature after September 11 2001 reflects the shift from bilateral nation state politics to the multilateralism of transnational politics While much of the criticism regarding novels of 9 11 tends to approach these works through theories of personal and collective trauma this book argues for the evolution of a post 9 11 novel that pursues a transversal approach to global conflicts that are unlikely to be resolved without diverse peoples willing to set aside sectarian interests These novels embrace not only American writers such as Don DeLillo Dave Eggers Ken Kalfus Thomas Pynchon and Amy Waldman but also the countervailing perspectives of global novelists such as J M Coetzee Orhan Pamuk Mohsin Hamid and Laila Halaby These are not novels about terrorism nor do they seek comfort in the respectful cloak of national mourning Rather they are instances of the novel in terror which recognizes that everything having been changed after 9 11 only the formally inventive presentation will suffice to acknowledge the event s unrepresentability and its
