The Anthropology Of Food And Body Gender Meaning And Power:

The Anthropology of Food and Body Carole Counihan, 1999 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Anthropology of Food and Body Carole M. Counihan, 2018-10-24 The Anthropology of Food and Body explores the way that making eating and thinking about food reveal culturally determined gender power relations in diverse societies This book brings feminist and anthropological theories to bear on these provocative issues and will interest anyone investigating the relationship between food the body and cultural notions of gender The Anthropology of Food and Body Carole Counihan, 1999 This book examines the way we understand our bodies our genders and ourselves through food The author uses a cross cultural approach to the study of food in order to ask compelling questions about eating disorders body dissatisfaction bodily changes in reproduction and gender differences Eating in Eden Etta M. Madden, Martha L. Finch, 2006-01-01 A study of community visions of food and the relationship to other communal ideals including ethnicity religious affiliation and gender roles Jeanette Winterson's Narratives of Desire Shareena Z. Hamzah-Osbourne, 2021-05-06 Putting forward a new theory of fetishism alternative fetishism this book provides an up to date examination of the work of Jeanette Winterson offering fresh perspectives and new insights on the topics of gender sexuality and identity in her writing Combining contemporary theories in psychoanalytical and cultural studies it proposes that a rethinking of fetishism allows Winterson s works to be brought into sharper critical focus by repositioning fetishism as a daily practice in society In so doing it argues that Winterson s work challenges orthodox normative and contemporary views of fetishism to reveal her own alternative version Containing the transcript of an email Q A with Winterson herself and covering the majority of Winterson s oeuvre from her first novel Oranges Are Not the Only Fruit 1985 up to the most recent Frankissstein 2019 the book is divided into three main chapters that each discuss a particular theme in Winterson s fiction bodily fetishism food fetishism and sexual fetishism While the book s focus is on Winterson the theoretical framework it proposes can be applied to other authors and disciplines in the Arts and Humanities such as theatre and film offering new ways of thinking about topics such as fetishism feminism psychoanalytical theory postmodernism gender and sexuality The Anthropology of Health and Healing Mari Womack, 2010 The Anthropology of Health and Healing provides the first holistic approach to the study of medical anthropology Over the past two decades medical anthropology has been the most rapidly growing subfield in anthropology and a number of medical anthropology texts have been published focusing primarily on public policy and health care delivery systems Yet while anthropologists have researched topics related to medical anthropology for more than one hundred years here Mari Womack thoroughly surveys this richly diverse field and provides an integrated approach that links together the biological psychological social communicative epidemiological philosophical historical and developmental factors that shape health and healing Book jacket Everyday Food Practices Tarunna Sebastian, 2021-06-29 In Everyday Food Practices Tarunna Sebastian explores the teaching and learning dimensions of people's food choices and practices as they are played out in their everyday lives and local community Using multi sited critical ethnographic methodology Sebastian followed people on their journeys while planning shopping preparing cooking and eating food These journeys reveal that supermarket corporations play a hegemonic role creating and sustaining class based diets and cultural dynamics which undermine individual agency Rebuking corporate hegemony food education at counter cultural sites such as farmers markets food cooperatives and community gardens seeks to empower people with knowledge and skills derived from socially and environmentally sustainable food curricula However class and ethnicity based patterns of engagement compromise learning at these sites Sebastian argues that by contrast the embodied experiences of inter generational home based food practices are more effective in teaching sustainable cooking skills and the production of healthy meals

Edible Identities: Food as Cultural Heritage Ronda L. Brulotte, 2016-04-29 Food its cultivation preparation and communal consumption has long been considered a form of cultural heritage A dynamic living product food creates social bonds as it simultaneously marks off and maintains cultural difference In bringing together anthropologists historians and other scholars of food and heritage this volume closely examines the ways in which the cultivation preparation and consumption of food is used to create identity claims of cultural heritage on local regional national and international scales Contributors explore a range of themes including how food is used to mark insiders and outsiders within an ethnic group how the same food's meanings change within a particular society based on class gender or taste and how traditions are invented for the revitalization of a community during periods of cultural pressure Featuring case studies from Europe Asia and the Americas this timely volume also addresses the complex processes of classifying designating and valorizing food as terroir slow food or as intangible cultural heritage through UNESCO By effectively analyzing food and foodways through the perspectives of critical heritage studies this collection productively brings two overlapping but frequently separate theoretical frameworks into conversation

Beyond Hummus and Falafel Liora Gvion, 2012-10-22 Beyond Hummus and Falafel is the story of how food has come to play a central role in how Palestinian citizens of Israel negotiate life and a shared cultural identity within a tense political context At the household level Palestinian women govern food culture in the home replicating tradition and acting as agents of change and modernization carefully adopting and adapting mainstream Jewish culinary practices and technologies in the kitchen Food is at the center of how Arab culture minorities define and shape the boundaries and substance of their identity within Israel

Activity, Diet and Social Practice Sarah Schrader, 2018-12-05 Day to day activities are important in the development of social identities the establishment of social standing and the communal understanding of societal rules This perspective is broadly referred to as practice theory and relates to the power of an overarching social structure and the individual actors that exist within it Practice theory has made an important contribution to anthropological and archaeological research as these fields are particularly interested in daily life and the importance of these actions This volume argues that practice theory can also be used in a bioarchaeological context through the examination of human skeletal remains and the archaeological context in which they were excavated Bioarchaeology offers a unique perspective on these day to day experiences skeletal tissue is constantly undergoing a process of change and as a living biological system it can adapt to external forces Furthermore bioarchaeological studies are multi scalar and can examine individuals groups or entire populations Using osteological indicators of activity patterns enthesal changes osteoarthritis and dietary isotopes carbon nitrogen as examples this book addresses patterns of everyday life in the ancient past Physical activities and food consumption are actions that are carried out on a daily basis While bioarchaeology does not have the ability to recreate specific day to day activities we can assess broad trends in everyday life The volume illustrates these points using examples from the Ancient Nile Valley Through the examination of over 800 Egyptian and Nubian individuals from five different archaeological sites the research addresses patterns of everyday life as they relate to social inequality agency and practice Beyond osteological indicators of activity and dietary patterns this book also discusses additional methods that can be pursued to draw attention to daily life Lastly this book also highlights the applicability of and potential contribution that practice theory can make to this area of research

Spaghetti Sissies Queering Italian American Media Julia Heim, Sole Anatrone, 2023-04-28 This contributed volume brings together personal accounts and scholarly research in an examination of the LGBTQIA Italian American experience and representation in North American media This is a population that has long been ignored both as an object of study and as a media maker and consumer Through consistent filmic representation the image of the Italian American has become archetypal leaving us with a set of immediately recognizable characters the hyper macho blue collar greaser the anti intellectual GTL Guido the child obsessed mamma and the heteronormative mafia family The rhetorical and literal loudness of these characters drowns out other possible embodiments of Italian American identity so that few examples survive of Italian Americans that do not conform to these classed heterosexual modes of being This volume fills that void foregrounding the importance of representation and of rethinking the historical narratives and cultural stereotypes surrounding Italian American identity This book is especially designed for those with an interest in queer theory gender and sexuality studies Italian American studies and media and cultural studies

Recipes and Songs Razia Parveen, 2017-02-04 This book presents a systematic approach to the literary analysis of cultural practices Based on a postcolonial framework of diaspora the book utilizes literary theory to investigate cultural phenomena such as food preparation and song Razia Parveen explores various diverse themes including the female voice genealogy space time and diaspora and applies them to the analysis of community identity This volume also demonstrates how a literary analysis of oral texts helps to provide insight into women's lived narratives For example Parveen discusses how the notion of the third space creates a distinctly feminine spatiality

"Can You Run Away from Sorrow?" Ivana Bajic-Hajdukovic, 2020-10-06 This intimate social history of family life in 1990s Serbia considers how emigration effects the elders left behind The fall of Yugoslavia in the 1990s led citizens to look for better more stable lives elsewhere For the older generations however this wasn't an option In this powerful work Ivana Bajic Hajdukovic reveals the impact that waves of emigration from Serbia had on family relationships and in particular on elderly mothers who stayed With nowhere to go and any savings given to their children to help establish new lives these seniors faced a crumbling economy waves of refugees entered from Croatia and Bosnia Herzegovina NATO bombings and the trial and ouster of Slobodan Milosevic Bajic Hajdukovic explores the transformations of family relationships and daily life practices in people's homes from foodways and childcare to gift exchanges Can You Run Away from Sorrow illustrates not only the tremendous sacrifice of parents but also their profound sense of loss of their families their country their stability and dignity and most importantly of their own identity and hope for what they thought their future would be

The Metamorphosis of Greek Cuisine Nafsika

Papacharalampous,2023-11-10 This book is an ethnography of the metamorphosis of rural foods and traditional dishes and of the making of cuisine and identity in contemporary Athens In the wake of the financial crisis in Athens in the mid 2010s forgotten rural foods of the past are transformed into luxurious artisanal foods while traditional dishes appear reinvented in fine dining restaurants after decades of darkness How and why is this all happening in a city of poverty hardship and economic crisis Through sensory descriptions and thick ethnographic material it follows the Athenian affluent middle class in upscale delis and goes inside fine dining restaurant kitchens discussing the complex combination of cuisine tradition memory and identity revealing the cultural logic and social aspects of cuisine It demonstrates how cuisine emerges from very different often contradictory social spaces not only as an intellectual and aesthetic endeavour of chefs or as a revival of foods and foodways that link the country and the city but also as interlinked with embodied memories and embedded in social relations and commensality This book will be of great interest to scholars and students in Anthropology and Food Studies

The Routledge Companion to Literature and Food Lorna Piatti-Farnell, Donna Lee Brien, 2018-04-19 The Routledge

Companion to Literature and Food explores the relationship between food and literature in transnational contexts serving as both an introduction and a guide to the field in terms of defining characteristics and development Balancing a wide reaching view of the long histories and preoccupations of literary food studies with attentiveness to recent developments and shifts the volume illuminates the aesthetic cultural political and intellectual diversity of the representation of food and eating in literature

Encounter, Transformation and Identity Ian Fowler, Verkijika G. Fanzo, 2009 Bringing together key historical and innovative ethnographic materials on the peoples of the South West Province of Cameroon and the Nigerian borderlands this volume presents critical and analytical approaches to the production of ethnic political religious and gendered identities in the region The contributors examine a range of issues relating to identity including first encounters and conflict as well as global networking trans national families enculturation gender resistance and death In addition to a number of very striking illustrations of ethnographic and material culture this volume contains key maps from early German sources and other original cartographical materials and changes in human food consumption from hunter gathering to ultra processed foods to digest the ramifications for people's identity work health and long term cultural distinction The new edition uses the concept of cuisine to trace humanity's relationship with food thematically explored through health sociality and identity It evaluates dietary change decent meals and food commodification alongside threats to security and health Drawing on ethnographic examples dietary transitions are situated in changing political economic and social circumstances presenting a critical approach necessary to explore our current global food system Chapters on cooking recipes and eating in and out offer relatable examples underlining the significance of everyday life and incorporating an ethnographic approach that extends into practical exercises aligned with each chapter's themes to highlight the relevancy of our own experiences Vividly illustrated the book explores dishes from various global cuisines offering insights into people's culinary traditions and enriching our understanding and appreciation of food as a fundamental aspect of culture in our daily lives Ultimately Eating Culture presents a critical examination of how deeply food is entwined with our identity

Rediasporization Gillian Richards-Greaves, 2020-11-24 Rediasporization African Guyanese Kweh Kweh examines how African Guyanese in New York City participate in the Come to My Kwe Kwe ritual to facilitate rediasporization that is the creation of a newer diaspora from an existing one Since the fall of 2005 African Guyanese in New York City have celebrated Come to My Kwe Kwe more recently called Kwe Kwe Night on the Friday evening before Labor Day Come to My Kwe Kwe is a reenactment of a uniquely African Guyanese pre wedding ritual called kweh kweh and sometimes referred to as karkalay mayan kweh keh and pele A typical traditional wedding based kweh kweh has approximately ten ritual segments which include the pouring of libation to welcome or appease the ancestors a procession from the groom's residence to the bride's residence or central kweh kweh venue the hiding of the bride and the negotiation of bride price Each ritual segment is executed with music and dance which allow for commentary on conjugal matters such as sex domestication submissiveness and hard work Come to My Kwe Kwe replicates the overarching segments of the traditional kweh kweh but a couple male and female from the audience acts as the bride and groom and props simulate the boundaries of the traditional performance space such as the gate and the bride's home This book draws on more than a decade of ethnographic research data and demonstrates how Come to My Kwe Kwe allows African Guyanese Americans to negotiate complex overlapping identities in their new homeland by combining elements from the past and present and reinterpreting them to facilitate rediasporization and ensure group survival
