Shedlock, 1915 In spite of a strong taste on the part of children for what is ugly and brutal I am sure that we ought to eliminate this element as far as possible from the school stories especially among poor children Not because I think children should be protected from all knowledge of evil but because so much of this knowledge comes into their life outside school that we can well afford to ignore it during school hours The Art of Story-Telling Marie L. Shedlock, 2016-09-05 The Art of the Story Teller by Marie L Shedlock Storytelling is the conveying of events in words images and sounds often by improvisation or embellishment Story telling is almost the oldest art in the world the first conscious form of literary communication In the East it still survives and it is not an uncommon thing to see a crowd at a street corner held by the simple narration of a story There are signs in the West of a growing interest in this ancient art and we may yet live to see the renaissance of the troubadours and the minstrels whose appeal will then rival that of the mob orator or itinerant politician One of the surest signs of a belief in the educational power of the story is its introduction into the curriculum of the training college and the classes of the elementary and secondary schools It is just at the time when the imagination is most keen the mind being unhampered by accumulation of facts that stories appeal most vividly and are retained for all time The Art of the Story-Teller Marie L.
