Joseph Lemos, 1920 "Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France, 1789-1914" Heather Belnap Jensen, 2017-07-05 Focusing specifically on portraiture as a genre this volume challenges scholarly assumptions that regard interior spaces as uniquely feminine Contributors analyze portraits of men in domestic and studio spaces in France during the long nineteenth century the preponderance of such portraits alone supports the book's premise that the alignment of men with public life is oversimplified and more myth than reality The volume offers analysis of works by a mix of artists from familiar names such as David Delacroix Courbet Manet Rodin and Matisse to less well known image makers including Dominique Doncre Constance Mayer Anders Zorn and Lucien Etienne Melingue The essays cover a range of media from paintings and prints to photographs and sculpture that allows exploration of the relation between masculinity and interiority across the visual culture of the period The home and other interior spaces emerge from these studies as rich and complex locations for both masculine self expression and artistic creativity Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France 1789-1914 provides a much needed rethinking of modern masculinity in this period Dictionary of Women Artists: Introductory surveys ; Artists, A-I Delia Gaze, 1997 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Reconciling Art and Mothering Rachel Epp Buller, 2017-07-05 Reconciling Art and Mothering contributes a chorus of new voices to the burgeoning body of scholarship on art and the maternal and for the first time focuses exclusively on maternal representations and experiences within visual art throughout the world This innovative essay collection joins the voices of practicing artists with those of art historians acknowledging the fluidity of those categories The twenty five essays of Reconciling Art and Mothering are grouped into two sections the first written by art historians and the second by artists Art historians reflect on the work of artists addressing motherhood including Marguerite Gerd Chana Orloff and Ren Cox from the early nineteenth century to the present day Contributions by contemporary artist mothers such as Gail Rebhan Denise Ferris and Myrel Chernick point to the influence of past generations of artist mothers to the inspiration found in the work of maternally minded literary and cultural theorists and to attempts to broaden definitions of maternity Working against a hegemonic construction of motherhood the contributors discuss complex and diverse feminist mothering experiences from maternal ambivalence to queer mothering to quests for self fulfillment The essays address mothering experiences around the globe with contributors hailing from North and South America Europe Asia Africa and Australia What's Next? D. Roche-Tarry, D. Fathers and Daughters in Shakespeare and Shaw Lagretta Lenker, 2001-04-30 How can the most silent member of the family carry the message of subversion against venerated institutions of state and society Why would two playwrights writing 300 years apart employ the same dramatic methods for rebelling against the establishment when these methods are virtually ignored by their contemporaries This book considers these and similar questions It examines the historical similarities of the eras in which Shakespeare and Shaw wrote and then explores types of father daughter interactions considering each in terms of the existing power structures of society These two dramatists draw on themes of incest daughter sacrifice role playing education and androgyny to create both active and passive daughters The daughters literally represent a challenge to the patriarchy and metaphorically extend that challenge to such institutions as church and state The volume argues that the father daughter relationship was the ideal dramatic vehicle for Shakespeare and Shaw to advance their social and political agendas By exploring larger issues through the father daughter relationship both playwrights were able to avoid the watchful eyes of censors and comment on such topics as the divine right of kings filial bonds of obedience and even regicide Monsieur Mallét: Or, My Daughter's Letter H.
