 Monroe,2009-04-22 Written for undergraduate geography majors and entry level graduate students with limited backgrounds in statistical analysis and methods McGrew and Monroe provide a comprehensive and understandable introduction to statistical methods in a problem solving framework Engaging examples and problems are drawn from a variety of topical areas in both human and physical geography and are fully integrated into the text Without compromising statistical rigor or oversimplifying the authors stress the importance of written narratives that explain each statistical technique After introducing basic statistical concepts and terminology the authors focus on nonspatial and spatial descriptive statistics They transition to inferential problem solving including probability sampling and estimation before delving deeper into inferential statistics for geographic problem solving The final chapters examine the related techniques of correlation and regression A list of major goals and objectives is included at the end of each chapter allowing students to monitor their own progress and mastery of geographic statistical materials An epilogue offering over 150 geographic situations gives students a chance to figure out which statistical technique should be used for a particular situation

Service-Learning Pedagogy Virginia M. Jagla, Andrew Furco, Jean R. Strait, 2015-02-01 Service learning is a powerful method of teaching and learning that has been used effectively for more than two decades Its efficacy has been researched in a variety of ways and this volume continues to expand that research base In particular in this volume Service Learning Pedagogy How Does It Measure Up we explore three broad areas of service learning research and practice that reflect broader discussions of the role of pedagogy in today s educational reform efforts Teacher Education Crossing Boundaries Deepening Relationships in Service Learning and New Paradigms Conceptual Frameworks Many have called for more rigorous methods when researching service learning pedagogy That has been the major impetus for this volume We seek to generate knowledge regarding service learning pedagogy while developing theories about it We surface some elusive affective characteristics of the pedagogy which we know has the power to produce transformational learning To this end the authors who have contributed to this volume effectively add to the growing body of knowledge in the field and help us get closer to understanding the extent to which service learning does and does not measure up
