Literary Translation in Modern Iran Esmaeil Haddadian-Moghaddam,2014-12-15

Literary Translation in Modern Iran A sociological study is the first comprehensive study of literary translation in modern Iran covering the period from the late 19th century up to the present day By drawing on Pierre Bourdieu's sociology of culture this work investigates the people behind the selection translation and production of novels from English into Persian The choice of novels such as Morier's The Adventures of Hajji Baba of Ispahan Austen's Pride and Prejudice and Vargas Llosa's The War of the End of the World provides insights into who decides upon titles for translation motivations of translators and publishers and the context in which such decisions are made The author suggests that literary translation in Iran is not a straightforward activity As part of the field of cultural production literary translation has remained a lively game not only to examine and observe but also often a challenging one to play By adopting hide and seek strategies and with attention to the dynamic of the field of publishing Iranian translators and publishers have continued to play the game against all odds The book is not only a contribution to the growing scholarship informed by sociological approaches to translation but an essential reading for scholars and students of Translation Studies Iranian Studies and Middle Eastern Studies

China and North Africa since World War II Muhamad S. Olimat,2014-12-11 This manuscript examines Sino North Africa relations on a bilateral level since World War II It highlights the depth of China's involvement in the region with each country on a five dimensional approach energy security trade relations political relations arms sales security cooperation and cultural relations Regarding each of these criteria North Africa holds a strategic significance to China's national security vital interests territorial integrity sovereignty regime survival and economic prosperity China has been an integral part of the political developments on North Africa political scene since the early 1950s It has supported the region's quest for independence and national liberation exchanged diplomatic recognition and established political partnerships Apparently the peoples of the North Africa and Africa at large are enthusiastic about China's increasingly involved role However China's heavy involvement in the continent's oil sector minerals fisheries corporate practices and its unconditional support to autocracies is mobilizing some resentment over China's intentions in the region Some intellectual trends are currently equating China with imperialism and neo imperialism Therefore to ensure equitable relations with Africa China and its corporations should refrain from colonial practices exploitation and environmental degradation China also needs to contribute to the region's process of development industrialization development and stability Otherwise its presence might not endure in comparison to British French Spanish or Portuguese presence in the continent

Censorship of Literature in Post-Revolutionary Iran Alireza Abiz, 2020-12-10 Censorship pervades all aspects of political social and cultural life in the Islamic Republic of Iran Faced with strict state control of cultural output Iranian authors and writers have had to adapt their work to avoid falling foul of the censors In this pioneering study Alireza Abiz offers an in depth interdisciplinary analysis of how censorship and the political order of Iran have influenced contemporary Persian literature both in terms of content and tone As censorship is unrecorded and not officially acknowledged in Iran the author has examined newspaper records and conducted first hand interviews with Iranian poets and writers looking into the ways in which poets and writers attempt to subvert the codes of censorship by using symbolism and figurative language to hide their more controversial messages A ground breaking analysis this book will be vital reading for anyone interested in contemporary cultural politics and literature in Iran

to name a black intellectual and chances are the response will be an American name Malcolm X or Barack Obama Toni Morrison or Cornel West Yet Britain has its own robust black intellectual traditions and its own master teachers among them C L R James Claudia Jones Ambalavaner Sivanandan Stuart Hall and Paul Gilroy However while in the USA black public intellectuals are an embedded if often embattled feature of national life black British thinkers remain routinely marginalized Black British Intellectuals and Education counters this neglect by exploring histories of race education and social justice through the work of black British public intellectuals academics educators and campaigners The book provides a critical history of diverse currents in black British intellectual production from the eighteenth century through post war migration and into the post multicultural present focusing on the sometimes hidden impacts of black thinkers on education and social justice Firstly it argues that black British thinkers have helped fundamentally to shape educational policy practice and philosophy particularly in the post war period Secondly it suggests that education has been one of the key spaces in which the mass consciousness of being black and British has emerged and a key site in which black British intellectual positions have been defined and differentiated Chapters explore the early development of black British intellectual life from the slave narratives to the anti colonial movements of the early twentieth century how African Caribbean and Asian communities began to organize against racial inequalities in schooling in the post Windrush era of the 1950s and 60s how from out of these grassroots struggles black intellectuals and activists of the 1970s 80s and 90s developed radical critiques of education youth and structural racism the influence of multiculturalism black cultural studies and black feminism on education current developments in black British educational work including post racial approaches Critical Race Theory and black social conservatism Black British Intellectuals and Education will be of key relevance to undergraduates postgraduates and academics engaged in research on race ethnicity education social justice and cultural studies

Hanan al-Cinema Laura U. Marks, 2015-09-18 An examination of experimental cinema and media art from the Arabic speaking world that explores filmmakers creative and philosophical inventiveness in trying times In this book Laura Marks examines one of the world's most impressive and affecting bodies of independent and experimental cinema from the last twenty five years film and video works from the Arabic speaking world Some of these works creative strategies are shared by filmmakers around the world others arise from the particular economic social political and historical circumstances of Arab countries whose urgency Marks argues seems to demand experiment and invention Grounded in a study of infrastructures for independent and experimental media art in the Arab world and a broad knowledge of hundreds of films and videos Hanan al Cinema approaches these works thematically Topics include the nomadism of the highway nostalgia for 70s radicalism a romance with the archive algorithmic and glitch media haptic and networked space and cinema of the body Marks develops an aesthetic of enfolding and unfolding to elucidate the different ways that cinema can make events perceptible seek connections among them and unfold in the bodies and thoughts of audiences The phrase Hanan al cinema expresses the way movies sympathize with the world and the way audiences feel affection for and are affected by them Marks s clear and expressive writing conveys these affections in works by such internationally recognized artists and filmmakers as Akram Zaatari Elia Suleiman Hassan Khan Mounir Fatmi and Joana Hadjithomas and Khalil Joreige and others who should be better known
