When Race, Religion, and Sport Collide Darron T. Smith,2015-10-30 When Race Religion and Sport Collide tells the story of Brandon Davies dismissal from Brigham Young University s NCAA playoff basketball team to illustrate the thorny intersection of religion race and sport at BYU and beyond Author Darron T Smith analyzes the athletes dismissed through BYU s honor code violations and suggests that they are disproportionately African American which has troubling implications He ties these dismissals to the complicated history of negative views towards African Americans in the LDS faith These honor code dismissals elucidate the challenges facing black athletes at predominantly white institutions Weaving together the history of the black athlete in America and the experience of blackness in Mormon theology When Race Religion and Sport Collide offers a timely and powerful analysis of the challenges facing African American athletes in the NCAA today Arabs and Jews in Ottoman Palestine Alan Dowty,2020-03-04 The historian and expert on Israeli Palestinian relations offers a well written well balanced account of cultural conflicts in the region before WWI Anita Shapira author of Israel A History When did the Arab Israeli conflict begin Some discussions focus on the 1967 war some go back to the creation of the state of Israel in 1948 and others look to the beginning of the British Mandate in 1922 Alan Dowty however traces the earliest roots of the conflict to the Ottoman Empire in the 19th century arguing that this historical approach highlights constant clashes between religious and ethnic groups in Palestine Dowty demonstrates that during the 19th century there was an overwhelming hostility to European foreigners and that Arab residents viewed new Jewish settlers as European He also shows that Jewish settlers had tremendous incentive to minimize all obstacles to settlement including the inconvenient hostility of the existing population Dowty's thorough research reveals how events that occurred over 125 years ago shaped the implacable conflict that dominates the Middle East today
