McCormack,2007-04-05 Showcasing assessment practices that can help teachers plan effective instruction this book addresses the real world complexities of teaching literacy in grades K 8 Leading contributors present trustworthy approaches that examine learning processes as well as learning products that yield information on how the learning environment can be improved and that are conducted in the context of authentic reading and writing activities The volume provides workable nuts and bolts ideas for incorporating assessment into instruction in all major literacy domains and with diverse learners including students in high poverty schools and those with special learning needs It is illustrated throughout with helpful concrete examples Modern Research and Studies in Educational Sciences III Ayşe Gül ÇİRKİNOĞLU ŞEKERCİOĞLU,2025-03-23 Educating About Social Issues in the 20th and 21st Centuries Vol. 2 Samuel Totten,Jon Pedersen,2013-02-01 Over the course of the past decade and a half we Samuel Totten and Jon E Pedersen have co edited a series of books on teaching and learning about social issues Our goal has been to build a series that would broadly represent the work that has been undertaken over the past 110 plus years related to the field of teaching and learning about social issues As we created and added to the series see for example Addressing Social Issues in the Classroom and Beyond The Pedagogical Efforts of Pioneers in the Field Researching and Teaching Social Issues The Personal Stories and Pedagogical Efforts of Professors of Education Teaching and Studying Social Issues Major Programs and Approaches we came to the conclusion that the development of an annotated bibliography of the key works books chapters articles reports and research on a wide range of issues topics germane to teaching and learning about social issues was a logical addition to the series In Educating About Social Issues in the 20th and 21st Centuries Volume 1 A Critical Annotated Bibliography which was published in early 2012 the focus was on a host of programs models strategies and concerns vis vis teaching and learning about social issues This new book constitutes Volume Two in the series entitled Educating About Social Issues in the Twentieth and Twenty First Centuries and picks up where Volume One left off Included in this book are the pioneering works of the following Boyd Bode Alan F Griffin G Gordon Hullfish Richard Gross Robert Yager and James Banks Collectively their work on social issues spans the period between the late 1930s through the present with James Banks and Robert Yager continuing to publish through today As for the subjects topics other than pioneers of teaching about social issues addressed in this volume they are Issues Centered Approaches to Teaching Geography Addressing Social Issues in Sociology and Anthropology Courses Peace Studies The Vietnam War and LBGT 1865 TO THE PRESENT A UNITED STATES HISTORY FOR HIGH SCHOOLS ,1865 New Directions in Assessing Historical Thinking Kadriye Ercikan,Peter Seixas,2015-02-20 New technologies have radically transformed our relationship to information in general and to little bits of information in particular The assessment of history learning which for a century has valued those little bits as the centerpiece of its practice now faces not only an unprecedented glut but a disconnect with what is valued in history education. More complex processes, historical thinking, historical consciousness, or historical sense making demand more complex assessments. At the same time, advances in scholarship on assessment open up new possibilities. For this volume, Kadriye Ercikan and Peter Seixas have assembled an international array of experts who have collectively moved the fields of history education and assessment forward. Their various approaches negotiate the sometimes conflicting demands of theoretical sophistication, empirically demonstrated validity, and practical efficiency. Key issues include articulating the cognitive goals of history education, the relationship between content and procedural knowledge, the impact of students' language literacy on history assessments, and methods of validation in both large scale and classroom assessments. New Directions in Assessing Historical Thinking is a critical research oriented resource that will advance the conceptualization, design, and validation of the next generation of history assessments.

Discourses of Globalisation, and the Politics of History School Textbooks Joseph Zajda, 2022-08-19. This book focuses on discourses of the politics of history education and history textbooks. It offers a new insight into understanding of the nexus between ideology, the state, and nation building as depicted in history education and school textbooks. It especially focuses on the interpretation of social and political change, significant events, looking for possible biases and omissions, leadership, and the contribution of key individuals and continuities. The book discusses various aspects of historical narratives and some selected key events in defining identity and nation building. It considers the role of historiography in dominant historical narratives. It analyses history education in both local and global settings and its significance in promoting values, education, and intercultural and global understanding. It is argued that historical narratives add pedagogies grounded in constructivist, metacognitive, and transformational paradigms have the power to engage the learner in significant and meaningful learning experiences informed by multiple discourses of our historical narratives and those of other nations.

Teaching Recent Global History Diana B. Turk, Laura J. Dull, Robert Cohen, Michael R. Stoll, 2014-03-05. Teaching Recent Global History explores innovative ways to teach world history beginning with the early 20th century. The authors' unique approach unites historians, social studies teachers, and educational curriculum specialists to offer historically rich, pedagogically innovative, and academically rigorous lessons that help students connect with and deeply understand key events and trends in recent global history. Highlighting the best scholarship for each major continent, the text explores the ways that this scholarship can be adapted by teachers in the classroom in order to engage and inspire students. Each of the eight main chapters highlights a particularly important event or theme, which is then complemented by a detailed discussion of a particular methodological approach. Key features include: An overarching narrative that helps readers address historical arguments; Relevant primary documents or artifacts plus a discussion of a particular historical method well suited to teaching about them; Lesson plans suitable for both middle and secondary level classrooms; Document based questions and short bibliographies for further research on the topic. This invaluable book is ideal for any aspiring or current teacher who wants to think critically about how to teach world history and make historical discussions come alive for students History Gr12 T/g , Data Book of Social Studies Materials and Resources ,1980
