Seligmann, Frank Nögler, 2016-03-03 The intense rivalry in battleship building that took place between Britain and Germany in the run up to the First World War is seen by many as the most totemic of all armaments races Blamed by numerous commentators during the inter war years as a major cause of the Great War it has become emblematic of all that is wrong with international competitions in military strength Yet despite this notoriety the Great Naval Race has not received the attention that this elevated status would merit and it has never been examined from the viewpoint of both of its participants simultaneously and equally This volume which contains a comprehensive survey of the existing scholarship on this topic both English language and German as well as important primary source materials from a range of archives in both Britain and Germany fills this gap By putting the actions of the British Admiralty side by side with those of its German counterparts it enables the naval race to be viewed comparatively and thereby facilitates an understanding of how the two parties to this conflict interacted By offering a comprehensive range of German documents in both their original text and in English translation the book makes the German role in this conflict accessible to an English speaking audience for the first time As such it is an essential volume for any serious student of naval policy in the pre First World War era Polish Jews in the Soviet Union (1939-1959) Katharina Friedla, Markus Nesselrodt, 2021-12-14 Winner of the 2022 PIASA Anna M Cienciala Award for the Best Edited Book in Polish Studies The majority of Poland s prewar Jewish population who fled to the interior of the Soviet Union managed to survive World War II and the Holocaust This collection of original essays tells the story of more than 200 000 Polish Jews who came to a foreign country as war refugees forced laborers or political prisoners This diverse set of experiences is covered by historians literary and memory scholars and sociologists who specialize in the field of East
