Children of the Fifth World P. M. H. Atwater,2012-10-24 Our species is evolving in preparation for the new world on the horizon Explains how the increase in intuitive creative and abstract thinking abilities of children as well as incidences of ADHD dyslexia and autism signal evolutionary changes at work in humanity the emergence of the Fifth Root Race Connects the appearance of these traits with ancient myths and evolutionary calendars as well as predictions by Teilhard de Chardin Edgar Cayce and other visionary seers Reveals how these new kids act as agents for world change by reflecting back every misguided aspect of business politics religion and culture The past 30 years have seen a quantum leap in the intuitive creative and abstract thinking abilities of children as well as an unprecedented rise in incidences of ADHD dyslexia and autism spectrum disorders As P M H Atwater explains we are witnessing evolution at work The changes in consciousness and brain function evident in these new kids signal the widespread emergence of the Fifth Root Race and fortuitously coincide with our transition into the Fifth World Providing a resource for parents and new kids themselves Atwater explains what is happening to our species and our world from neurological changes and climate upheavals to the drive to be constantly connected through screen based technology and the unnecessary widespread use of drug therapies Sharing individual case histories underscoring the traits of the new child personality she reveals how these children born with universal consciousness encoded in their DNA act as agents for world change by reflecting back every misguided aspect of business politics religion entertainment technology and culture so we can t ignore what needs to be repaired Atwater shows how children labeled as autistic or otherwise damaged have enormous potential for greatness Connecting recent events and cultural shifts with creation myths evolutionary calendars and historical records from every culture as well as predictions by Teilhard de Chardin Sri Aurobindo Edgar Cayce and other visionary seers Atwater shows how the genetic shift now occurring follows the Rule of Thirds in its progression Exploring timelines for the next several hundred years she explains that the coming new world will be tailored specifically for the new kids who will lead the way in the Great Shift from old world to new

Teaching to Change the World Jeannie Oakes, Martin Lipton, Lauren Anderson, Jamy Stillman, 2015-11-17 This is an up to the moment engaging multicultural introduction to education and teaching and the challenges and opportunities they present Together the four authors bring a rich blend of theory and practical application to this groundbreaking text Jeannie Oakes is a leading education researcher and former director of the UCLA teacher education program Martin Lipton is an education writer and consultant and has taught in public schools for 31 years Lauren Anderson and Jamy Stillman are former public school teachers now working as teacher educators This unique comprehensive foundational text considers the values and politics that pervade the U S education system explains the roots of conventional thinking about schooling and teaching asks critical questions about how issues of power and privilege have shaped and continue to shape educational opportunity and presents powerful examples of real teachers working for equity and justice Taking the position that a hopeful democratic future depends on ensuring that all students learn the text pays particular attention to inequalities associated with race social class language gender and other social categories and explores teachers role in addressing them The text provides a research based and practical treatment of essential topics and it situates those topics in relation to democratic values issues of diversity and cognitive sociocultural and constructivist perspectives on learning The text shows how knowledge of education foundations and history can help teachers understand the organization of today s schools the content of contemporary curriculum and the methods of modern teaching It likewise shows how teachers can use such knowledge when thinking about and responding to headline issues like charter schools vouchers standards testing and bilingual education to name just a few Central to this text is a belief that schools can and must be places of extraordinary educational quality and institutions in the service of social justice Thus the authors address head on tensions between principles of democratic schooling and competition for always scarce high quality opportunities Woven through the text are the voices of a diverse group of teachers who share their analyses and personal anecdotes concerning what teaching to change the world means and involves Click Here for Book Website Pedagogical Features Digging Deeper sections referenced at the end of each chapter and featured online include supplementary readings and resources from scholars and practitioners who are addressing issues raised in the text Instructor s Manual offers insights about how to teach course content in ways that are consistent with cognitive and sociocultural learning theories culturally diverse pedagogy and authentic assessment New to this Edition

The Feminization of Quest-Romance Dana A. Heller,2014-03-19 What happens when a woman dares to imagine herself a hero Questing she sets out for unknown regions Lighting a torch she elicits from the darkness stories never told or heard before The woman hero sails against the tides of great legends that recount the adventures of heroic men legends deemed universal timeless and essential to our understanding of the natural order that holds us and completes us in its spiral Yet these myths and rituals do not fulfill her need for an empowering self image nor do they grant her the mobility she requires to imagine enact and represent her quest for authentic self knowledge The Feminization of Quest Romance proposes that a female quest is a revolutionary step in both literary and cultural terms Indeed despite the difficulty that women writers face in challenging myths rituals psychological theories and literary conventions deemed universal by a culture that exalts masculine ideals and universalizes male experience a number of revolutionary texts have come into existence in the second half of the twentieth century by such American women writers as Jean Stafford Mary McCarthy Anne Moody Marilynne Robinson and Mona Simpson all of them working to redefine the literary portrayal of American women s quests They work in part by presenting questing female characters who refuse to accept the roles accorded them by restrictive social norms even if it means sacrificing themselves in the name of rebellion In later texts female heroes survive their lighting out experiences to explore diverse alternatives to the limiting roles that have circumscribed female development This study of The Mountain Lion Memories of a Catholic Girlhood Coming of Age in Mississippi Housekeeping and Anywhere but Here identifies transformations of the quest romance that support a viable theory of female development and offer literary patterns that
