Travellers, Intellectuals, and the World Beyond Medieval Europe James Muldoon,2017-05-15 As the articles reprinted in this volume demonstrate medieval men and women were curious about the world around them They wanted to hear about distant lands and the various peoples who inhabited them Travellers tales factual such as that of Marco Polo and fictional such as Chaucer's famous pilgrimage entertained audiences across Europe Colorful mappaemundi placed in churches illustrated these other lands and peoples for those who could not read Medieval travel literature was not only entertaining however it was also informative generating proto ethnological information about the world beyond Latin Christendom that provided useful guidance for those such as merchants and missionaries who intended to travel abroad Merchants learned about safe travel routes to foreign lands about dangers to be avoided on the roads and at sea about cultural practices that might interfere with their attempts at trade and about products that would be suitable for foreign markets Churchmen read the reports of missionaries to understand the beliefs of Muslims and other non believers in order to debate with them and to learn their languages These articles illustrate how travellers reports in turn shaped the European response to the world beyond Europe and are set in context in the editor's introduction

Into the Twilight of Sanskrit Court Poetry Jesse Knutson,2014-03-14 At the turn of the twelfth century into the thirteenth at the court of King Lakshmanasena of Bengal Sanskrit poetry showed profound and sudden changes a new social scope made its definitive entrance into high literature Courtly and pastoral rural and urban cosmopolitan and vernacular confronted each other in a commingling of high and low styles A literary salon in what is now Bangladesh at the eastern extreme of the nexus of regional courtly cultures that defined the age seems to have implicitly reformulated its entire literary system in the context of the imminent breakdown of the old courtly world as Turkish power expanded and redefined the landscape Through close readings of a little known corpus of texts from eastern India this ambitious book demonstrates how a local and rural sensibility came to infuse the cosmopolitan language of Sanskrit creating a regional literary idiom that would define the emergence of the Bengali language and its literary traditions

The Comic Text Brian J. Levy, 2021-11-01 This book offers a close analysis of the Old French fabliaux that medieval corpus of short comic tales in narrative verse celebrated sometimes notorious for their irreverence and sexual content It picks out certain key images such as gambling illness and damnation which develop into themes and motifs running through all the texts and which add layers of ironic patterning to the essential subject matter and narrative of each fabliau These elements in many respects the small print of the joke furnish the comic text with many rhythms and echoes all contributing to the ludic adversarial nature of the text They are extremely flexible serving as a rhetoric of depiction that extends from broad comic motif to the lightest triggering of a mocking smile This volume will be of interest to all students of medieval culture Old French literature and the development of the short or comic narrative

Before and Beyond Divergence Jean-Laurent Rosenthal, R. Bin Wong, 2011-04-01 Why did sustained economic growth arise in Europe rather than in China The authors combine economic theory and historical evidence to argue that political processes drove the economic divergence between the two world regions with continued consequences today that become clear in this innovative account

Paul as a Problem in History and Culture Patrick Gray, 2016-04-19 As one of the most significant figures in the history of Western civilization the apostle Paul has influenced and inspired countless individuals and institutions But for some he holds a controversial place in Christianity This engaging book explores why many people have been wary of Paul and what their criticisms reveal about the church and the broader culture Patrick Gray brings intellectual and cultural history into conversation with study of the New Testament providing a balanced account and assessment of widespread antipathy to Paul and exploring what the controversy tells us about ourselves

Populism and Illiberalism in Western Societies John J. Rodger, 2024-06-24 A major concern in Western countries today is the destabilising influence of radical right political forces which are intent on supplanting liberal democracy with something called illiberal democracy This book offers a fresh perspective on our understanding of the phenomenon of populism which underpins this radical right challenge Drawing on the systems theory of Niklas Luhmann the author applies his conception of autopoietic social systems to the analysis of radical right populism in Britain Europe and the United States The unique aspect of this analysis is the bringing together of autopoietic systems theory with insights derived from a more conventional sociological viewpoint offered by Norbert Elias Pierre Bourdieu C Wright Mills and Edwin Sutherland The book will be of interest to students and researchers in political science and sociology with a particular interest in applying Luhmann's work to issues relating to democracy and autocracy

Beyond Expulsion Debra Kaplan, 2011-07-26 Beyond Expulsion is a history of Jewish Christian interactions in early modern Strasbourg a city from which the Jews had been expelled and banned from residence in the late fourteenth century. This study shows that the Jews who remained in the Alsatian countryside continued to maintain relationships with the city and its residents in the ensuing period. During most of the sixteenth century Jews entered Strasbourg on a daily basis where they participated in the city's markets, litigated in its courts and shared their knowledge of Hebrew and Judaica with Protestant Reformers. By the end of the sixteenth century Strasbourg became an increasingly orthodox Lutheran city and city magistrates and religious leaders sought to curtail contact between Jews and Christians. This book unearths the active Jewish participation in early modern society, traces the impact of the Reformation on local Jews, discusses the meaning of tolerance and describes the shifting boundaries that divided Jewish and Christian communities. A landscape of words Amy C.

Mulligan, 2019-05-14 Living on an island at the edge of the known world the medieval Irish were in a unique position to examine the spaces of the North Atlantic region and contemplate how geography can shape a people. This book is the first full length study of medieval Irish topographical writing. It situates the theories and poetics of Irish place developed over six centuries in response to a variety of political, cultural, religious and economic changes in the bigger theoretical picture of studies of space, landscape, environmental writing and postcolonial identity construction. Presenting focused studies of important literary texts by authors from Ireland and Britain it shows how these discourses influenced European conceptions of place and identity as well as understandings of how to write the world. Middle Ages Walter A. Hazen, 2005-09 Being a knight in the Middle Ages wasn't as fun as you might think. Knights and jousts, castles and moats, the bubonic plague and the Crusades, this book covers it all. Easy to read anecdotal narratives keep students engaged and the cross curricular activities and puzzles that follow each chapter enhance language arts, math and critical thinking skills. Grades 6-8. Illustrated. Good Year Books. 96 pages. Eleven fascinating historical articles, four or five pages long and reproducible for easy distribution, summarize main points and deliver colorful, memorable details about history. Following each illustrated article, three or four reproducible worksheets test comprehension and spark deeper engagement through creative writing, arts and crafts projects, research starters, critical thinking questions, what if scenarios and other activities. Grades 4-8. Suggested readings. Answer keys.

Waiting for the End of the World Tsvetelin Stepanov, 2019-10-21 The French president Charles de Gaulle spoke of a Europe from the Atlantic to the Urals. Europe was spatially formed with these topographic parameters from the late 10th century onwards with the massive Christianization of its inhabitants. At that time, however, all three monotheistic religions already had a steady presence there. Could such a macro space be thought and narrated from a macro perspective in view of its medieval past? This has already been done through common denominators such as the Migration Period, wars, trade, spread of Christianity. Could it also be seen through a common religious, philosophical and spiritual phenomenon, the Anticipation of the End of the world among Christians, Muslims and Jews? This book gives a positive answer to the last question. Beyond

Animal Rights Tony Milligan,2010-10-07 Issues to do with animal ethics remain at the heart of public debate In Beyond Animal Rights Tony Milligan goes beyond standard discussions of animal ethics to explore the ways in which we personally relate to other creatures through our diet as pet owners and as beneficiaries of experimentation The book connects with our duty to act and considers why previous discussions have failed to result in a change in the way that we live our lives The author asks a crucial question what sort of people do we have to become if we are to sufficiently improve the ways in which we relate to the non human Appealing to both consequences and character he argues that no improvement will be sufficient if it fails to set humans on a path towards a tolerable and sustainable future Focussing on our direct relations to the animals we connect with the book offers guidance on all the relevant issues including veganism and vegetarianism the organic movement pet ownership and animal experimentation

The Humanistic Tradition Gloria K. Fiero,2001-11 Beginning with the birth of Christianity and of Buddhism the second book of The Humanistic Tradition offers a wide ranging look at the period from 0 1300 C E The book addresses the interaction between religion and culture in emerging Islamic societies while also drawing on art music literature and architecture to draw a vivid portrait of life in Medieval Europe It concludes with a discussion of the art and culture of medieval Asia India China and Japan

American Slavery, Atlantic Slavery, and Beyond Enrico Dal Lago, 2015-12-22 American Slavery Atlantic Slavery and Beyond provides an up to date summary of past and present views of American slavery in international perspective and suggests new directions for current and future comparative scholarship It argues that we can better understand the nature and meaning of American slavery and antislavery if we place them clearly within a Euro American context Current scholarship on American slavery acknowledges the importance of the continental and Atlantic dimensions of the historical phenomenon comparing it often with slavery in the Caribbean and Latin America However since the 1980s a handful of studies has looked further and has compared American slavery with European forms of unfree and nominally free labor Building on this innovative scholarship this book treats the U S peculiar institution as part of both an Atlantic and a wider Euro American world It shows how the Euro American context is no less crucial than the Atlantic one in understanding colonial slavery and the American Revolution in an age of global enlightenment reformism and revolutionary upheavals the Cotton Kingdom s heyday in a world of systems of unfree labor and the making of radical Abolitionism and the occurrence of the American Civil War at a time when nationalist ideologies and nation building movements were widespread

The Art of Cistercian Persuasion in the Middle Ages and Beyond, 2015-10-14 Focusing on the theory and practice of Cistercian persuasion the articles gathered in this volume offer historical literary critical and anthropological perspectives on Caesarius of Heisterbach s Dialogus Miraculorum thirteenth century the context of its production and other texts directly or indirectly inspired by it The exempla inserted by Caesarius into a didactic dialogue between a monk and a novice survived for many centuries and travelled across the seas thanks to rewritings and translations into vernacular languages An accomplished example of the art of persuasion medieval and early modern the Dialogus Miraculorum establishes a link not only between the monasteries the mendicant circles and other religious congregations but also between the Middle Ages and Modernity the Old and the New World Contributors are Jacques Berlioz Elisa Brilli Dani le Dehouve Pierre Antoine Fabre Marie Formarier Jasmin Margarete Hlatky Elena Koroleva Nathalie Luca Brian Patrick McGuire Stefano Mula Marie Anne Polo de Beaulieu Victoria Smirnova and Anne Marie Turcan Verkerk
