The Mis-Education of the Negro Carter Woodson, In this seminal work Carter Woodson argues that the American education system has failed to properly educate African Americans instead teaching them to accept their oppressed status as divinely ordained He contends that this miseducation has crushed the spark of genius in black students making them feel inferior to other races and leading them to despise their own people Woodson calls for a new approach to educating African Americans one that is tailored to their unique needs and environment rather than simply imitating the education of white Americans

The Mis-Education of the Negro Carter Godwin Woodson, 2013-10-30 Carter Godwin Woodson is considered by many to be the father of African American history The son of former slaves in 1912 Woodson earned his Ph D in history at Harvard University the second African American to earn a doctorate the first being W E B DuBois Noting that African American contributions were overlooked ignored and even suppressed by the writers of history textbooks and the teachers who use them in 1926 he originated the concept of Negro History Week which he set in the second week of February which coincided with the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass That week of recognition soon became largely accepted and was eventually extended for the full month of February becoming known as Black History Month The material that makes up The Mis Education of the Negro was originally a series of speeches and essays delivered and written by Woodson in the late 1920s and early 1930s but which he collected into book form in 1933 It is still considered a classic piece of African American writing and is widely in high school and college classrooms

The Mis-education of the Negro, Stolen Legacy and the Willie Lynch Letter George James,Carter Woodson,Willie Lynch,2016-07-29 Book Includes The Mis education of the Negro Stolen Legacy and The Willie Lynch Letter The Mis-education of the Negro Carter G. Woodson,2010-03-01 The Mis Education of the Negro is one of the most important black history books or African American literature ever written Penned by thought leader Carter G Woodson The Mis Education of the Negro unveils the weakness of Euro centric based curriculums that fail to include African American history and culture This system mis educates the African American student failing to prepare them for success and to give them an adequate sense of who they are within the system that they must live This mis education creates a serious identity crisis on the part of African youth and it causes many Black educated middle class people to spend more time trying to reach the consumer oriented American Dream rather than working toward real self determination Thus it s of little surprise today that most African students never enroll in a course on African American studies In fact these courses are becoming more rare in high school and colleges across the nation In Carter G Woodson s words Real education means to inspire people to live more abundantly to learn to begin with life as they find it and make it better but the instruction so far given Negroes in colleges and universities has worked to the contrary In most cases such graduates have merely increased the number of malcontents who offer no program for changing the undesirable conditions about which they complain
