African American religious history who have striven for full social inclusion It offers a narrative interpretation of Black religion that engages this current generation of students grappling with enduring marginalization in the post civil Rights and post Obama era This is to say despite the victories of the Civil Rights Movement culminating for some with the historic election of Barack Obama in 2008 Black religions have not provided a panacea for lingering social inequities Still throughout American history Black people have continuously creatively employed religion to respond to changing oppressions The book underscores the intersectionality of Black religious women and examines their experience and resistance of racism sexism and classism Featuring student friendly pedagogy including discussion questions it s a must read for all students of African American Religion Religion in America or African American History interested in studying how Black religion has factored in the long struggle for social justice in America African American Theology Frederick L. Ware,2016-03-01 This book presents a substantial introduction to the major methodologies figures and themes within African American theology Frederick L Ware explores African American theology from its inception and places it within dual contexts first the African American struggle for dignity and full humanity and second the broader scope of Christian belief Readers will appreciate Ware s demonstration of how black theology is expressed in a wide range of sources that includes not only scholarly publications but also African American sermons music news and editorials biography literature popular periodicals folklore and philosophy Each chapter concludes with questions for discussion and suggested resources for further study Ware provides a seasoned perspective on where African American theology has been and where it is going and he demonstrates its creativity within the chorus of Christian theology Wounded Images Kristine M. Whaley,2024-03-27 This volume works through deconstructing traditional models of the imago Dei in search of a more inclusive understanding of the doctrine one that allows for literature to bring important questions to bear Brief analyses of Karl Barth and Paul Tillich and then growing dissatisfaction with the two in various liberation theologies brings to light the problems of a perfected image of God An exploration of four novels by Jean Rhys between 1928 and 1939 then follows the footsteps of Katie Cannon and others who include literature in their theological work The Rhys novels follow tragic stories of women who are wounded both by others and by their own inability to see themselves as worthy Through the questions these women ask about themselves and God the reconstruction of the imago Dei is set up This reconstruction centers trauma wounds and a non contrastive transcendence that Kathryn Tanner defines Ultimately it is not in how we are perfect but rather through our risks our wounds and even our grief that we connect to God Moved by the Spirit Emilie M. Townes,Christophe D. Ringer,Teresa L. Smallwood,2023-03-27 Moved by the Spirit Religion and the Movement for Black Lives explores the religious and theological significance of the Black Lives Matter Movement The volume argues for engaging the complex ways religion is present in the movement as well as how the movement is changing religion The contributors analyze this relationship from a variety of religious and theological perspectives on public protest the meaning of freedom Black humanity the arts and practices of Black religious culture and the transformation of Black religious communities The volume reveals that the Movement for Black Lives is changing our understanding of religious experience and communities Critical Race Studies Across Disciplines Jonathan Chism,David Ryden,Vida Robertson,Stacie Craft DeFreitas,2021-04-19 This book argues that critical race theory CRT which originated within Legal Studies during the 1970s has permeated multiple academic disciplines and informs the ethical commitments of scholars in diverse fields of study Critical Race Studies Across Disciplines includes essays by scholars of African American studies from various disciplines who directly and indirectly incorporate CRT through signaling a commitment to scholar activism or scholactivism Scholactivists hope to understand the roots of anti Black racism and to actively oppose all forms of oppression Drawing on CRT the volume counters the colorblind rhetoric of those who dismiss the notion of systemic racism discount racial inequities and disregard racial justice advocates as malcontents fanning the flames of racial dissension The contributors of this collection challenge racism centering the stories perspectives and counter narratives of African American soldiers teachers students writers psychologists and theologians who continually defy and resist oppression in myriad ways Responding to The Uninvited Visitor Opoku Onyinah,Alfred Koduah,2024-09-23 Written by an array of seasoned Christian leaders theologians and academics this book captures the various aspects of the COVID 19 pandemic with the view of drawing lessons for the future It examines the pandemic from historical biblical theological medical psychological socio cultural political economic educational as well as mission and evangelistic perspectives It also discusses the impact of the pandemic on Africans in the diaspora family life church administration and the youth The book makes several recommendations on how the church must reposition itself in the post COVID 19 era to enable it to maintain and expand its missional activities without compromising the core values of the Christian faith

Missiology Reimagined Kent Michael Shaw I,2024-03-11 In this compelling research Kent Michael Shaw I reveals a concise and comprehensive work on the development of Missions Theology informed by the perspectives from early African American missionaries Missiology Reimagined unveils the hidden and ignored missions history of enslaved and free African Americans during the antebellum period of the United States This book helps the student of missiology decipher how the events of the 1800s shaped the missions theology of Black Americans The enslaved of that day constructed a hermeneutic and interpreted the sacred text through a lens that contradicted their enslaver s version of Christianity Through these constructs they critically engaged in scripture and formulated a theology of mission contextualized for their lived experience This insight compelled them to risk death and re enslavement to pursue a global mandate from God These pioneering missionaries would emerge as experts in the field of global evangelism heralding them as both missionaries and missiologists Since they were practitioners and students of Scripture an applied mission s theology would materialize The reader will observe how this theological formation influenced the black church in the nineteenth century and their missiology reimagined These men and women held two titles missionary and missiologist These pioneer missionaries would emerge as early experts in the field of global evangelism As practitioners and students of scripture an applied mission s theology evolved The reader will observe how this theological formation would shape the black church in the nineteenth century and a reimagined missiology Roma Pentecostals Narrating Identity, Trauma, and Renewal in Croatia and Serbia Melody Wachsmuth,2022-10-17 Stories of Pentecostal conversion and church growth in Roma communities are prolific across Europe but how does conversion impact daily lives in the context of economic hardship and social marginalization In fact Roma Pentecostal life stories from Croatia and Serbia reveal both resilience and suffering and consequently reveal the struggle of lived faith amidst formidable challenges In what ways then has a new Pentecostal identity shifted relationships thinking and behaviour This ethnography explores the ways in which these Roma Pentecostals incorporate their faith in their daily lives through analysing their life stories in conjunction with their socio cultural contexts and Pentecostal theology

Decolonizing Interreligious Education Shannon Frediani,2022-10-28 Decolonizing Interreligious Educationexplores multiple injustices focusing on the lived experience unaddressed grief and acts of resistance and resilience of populations most impacted by coloniality and white supremacy It lifts up the voices of those speaking from embodied experience of suffering multiple oppressions based on negative constructs of race religion skin color nationality etc Engaging ideological critique construction of knowledge beyond dominant lenses and acts of resistance are presented from the perspective of those most impacted by systemic injustice It challenges interreligious education to frame encounters where the impact of intergeneration trauma and the realities of power differentials are recognized and the contributions of all voices are truly integrated It challenges the fields of religious and interreligious education to imagine a broadened view that includes recognition of the role played by religion in harm done and to take a leadership role in engaging processes of accountability and redress Ben Ammi Ben Israel Michael Miller,2023-07-27 This text introduces Ben Ammi the leader and theologian of the African Hebrew Israelite community as a systematic thinker and theologian It examines his many books and speeches in order to provide a comprehensive introduction to his thought in the context of both African American and Jewish contemporaries and precursors Divided into three thematic sections History Law and Language the text introduces Ben Ammi s understanding of the nature of God the responsibilities of the human and the narrative of history Ben Ammi was a deeply spiritual but also remarkably modern thinker who blended scientific thought into his evolving socio theology while seeking to remove religion from the realm of mythology The book evaluates how Ben Ammi s theology is one bound to concepts of humility and learning how to go with the grain of the natural world in order to find humanity s true center as a part of nature Constructive Pneumatological Hermeneutics in Pentecostal Christianity Kenneth J. Archer,L. William Oliverio, Jr.,2016-12-21 This book presents the work of leading hermeneutical theorists alongside emerging thinkers examining the current state of hermeneutics within the Pentecostal tradition The volume s contributors present constructive ideas about the future of hermeneutics at the intersection of theology of the Spirit Pentecostal Christianity and other disciplines This collection offers cutting edge scholarship that engages with and pulls from a broad range of fields and points toward the future of Pneumatological hermeneutics The volume s interdisciplinary essays are broken up into four sections philosophical hermeneutics biblical theological hermeneutics social and cultural hermeneutics and hermeneutics in the social and physical sciences

Life Under the Baobab Tree Kenneth N. Ngwa, Aliou Cissé Niang, Arthur Pressley,2023-09-05 Life Under the Baobab Tree Africana Studies and Religion in a Transitional Age is a compendium of innovating essays meticulously written by early and later diaspora people of African descent Their speech arises from the depth of their experiences under the Baobab tree and offers to the world voices of resilience newness resurrection hope and life Resolutely journeying on the trails of their ancestors they speak about setbacks and forward looking movements of liberation social transformation and community formation The volume is a carefully woven conversation of intellectual substance and structure across time space and spirituality that is quintessentially Africana in its centering of methodological theoretical epistemological and hermeneutical complexity that assumes nonlinear and dialogical approaches to developing liberating epistemologies in the face of imperialism colonialism racism and religious intolerance A critical part of this conversation is a reconceptualization and reconfiguration of the concept of religion in its colonial and imperial forms Life Under the Baobab Tree examines how Africana peoples understand their corporate experiences of the divine not as religion apart from its intimate connections to social realities of communal health economics culture politics environment violence war and dynamic community belonging To that end Afro Pessimistic formulations of life placed in dialogic relation Afro Optimism Both realities constitute life under the Baobab tree and represent the sturdiness and variation that anchors the deep ruptures that have affected Africana life and the creative responses The metaphor and substance of the tree resists reductionist essentialist and assured conclusions about the nature of diasporic lived experiences both within the continent of Africa and in the African Diaspora

Manifesting the Primal Imagination Joshua D. Settles,2024-09-26 Manifesting the Primal Imagination explores a little known but important aspect of Black American Christianity the primal spirituality of the Black Pentecostal and spiritual church Set against the backdrop of a Christianity believed by many to be synonymous with White Western culture Manifesting the Primal Imagination demonstrates how this image of Christianity came to be and how it is false through a historical and scriptural examination of Christianity itself At a time in which the nature of Christian faith is hotly contested with many rejecting Christianity on the basis of its historical association with White supremacist claims Settles advocates for a rereading of the history of Black American faith in a way that recognizes the importance of the primal imagination to Christianity itself

Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity John H. McClendon III, 2019-05-03 Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity A Philosophical Appraisal constitutes a philosophical inquiry on Black Theology and its attendant Black Christology Explicitly the philosophical examination of Black Theology conceptually maps its quest for establishing Black Christology as an authentic form within Christian theology This text critically expounds on the methodologies and arguments which guide how Black Theology specifically affirms Black Christology as the definitive paradigm for authentic Christianity Significantly the racialized character of Black Theology immediately sets this discourse within the context of philosophy of race Clearly the philosophy of race in terms of its substance and scope is continually expanding Notably the philosophy of religion in its conceptual association with the African American experience considerably enriches the content of the philosophy of race Therefore Black Christology and the Quest for Authenticity A Philosophical Appraisal stands as a unique contribution to philosophy of race Summarily while this book tackles the formidable problem of Christian theological subject matter nonetheless the reader must be aware that this is not a work executed methodologically in any theological manner inclusive of Christian theology Subsequently while the object of our investigation substantively remains theological in character the method of investigation is guided by philosophical inquiry which is based on secular principles Furthermore although most mainstream works in philosophy of religion along with theology neglect to exam African American theologians and philosophers the subject matter of Black Christology substantially facilitates in filling this intellectual void Reading While Black Esau McCaulley, 2020-09-01 Reading Scripture from the perspective of Black church tradition can help us connect with a rich faith history and address the urgent issues of our times Demonstrating an ongoing conversation between the collective Black experience and the Bible New Testament scholar Esau McCaulley shares a personal and scholarly testament to the power and hope of Black biblical interpretation The Sacred Act of Reading Anne Margaret Castro, 2020-01-13 From Zora Neale Hurston to Derek Walcott to Toni Morrison New World black authors have written about African derived religious traditions and spiritual practices The Sacred Act of Reading examines religion and sociopolitical power in modern and contemporary texts of a variety of genres from the black Americas By engaging with spiritual traditions such as Vodou Kumina and Protestant Christianity while drawing on canonical Eurocentric literary theory Anne Margaret Castro presents a novel nuanced reading of power through the physical and metaphysical relationships portrayed in these great works of New World black literature Castro examines prophecy in the dramas of Derek Walcott preaching in the ethnography of Zora Neale Hurston and liturgy in the novels of Toni Morrison offering comparative readings alongside the works of Afro Colombian anthropologist Manuel Zapata Olivella Jamaican sociologist Erna Brodber and Canadian fiction writer Nalo Hopkinson The Sacred Act of Reading is the first book to bring together literary texts historical and contemporary anthropological studies theology and critical theory to show how black authors in the Americas employ spiritual phenomena as theoretical frameworks for thinking within against and beyond structures of political dominance dependence and power To Shape a
