The Miryam Monologues:

The Miryam Monologues Michael Lapointe, 2014-10-23 From the moment I had known him conceived a bastard in a small village I had tried to protect him from his hostile family and neighbors and instill in him a sense of caution and self preservation Yet here he stood drawing the vastly more dangerous attentions of the priests and Romans I had raised a child I feared for not the one who would become this public man What a fool I felt My efforts as his mother had been miserably mistaken and so ended in this estrangement Miryam Mary of Nazareth as she witnesses her son Yeshua Jesus addressing a large crowd in Galilee The Miryam Monologues depicts the struggle of a fiercely protective woman to understand her son and to accept his fate Told from her own perspective these twenty six monologues record the growth of Miryam from a beleaguered fifteen year old girl into an inspired leader of her eldest son s followers The Miryam Monologues begins with a bold young woman whose indifference to convention ostracizes her from her community The marriage offered by Yosef Joseph saves Miryam from stoning but she doubts her husband believes her account of Yeshua s origin When Yeshua undertakes his mission to heal and teach Miryam watches in confusion helpless to protect her child as he exposes himself to the hostility of the priests and Romans As her son approaches his inevitable death Miryam fights to end her bitter alienation from him and in the last hours of his life to achieve her own redemption Women's Scenes and Monologues Joyce centuries women wrote and published Yiddish poems that addressed the crises of Jewish history from the plague to the Holocaust as well as the challenges and pleasures of daily life prayer art friendship nature family and love Through close readings and translations of poems of eighteen writers Hellerstein argues for a new perspective on a tradition of women Yiddish poets Framed by a consideration of Ezra Korman s 1928 anthology of women poets Hellerstein develops a discussion of poetry that extends from the sixteenth century through the twentieth from early modern Prague and Krakow to high modernist Warsaw New York and California The poems range from early conventional devotions such as a printer s preface and verse prayers to experimental transgressive lyrics that confront a modern ambivalence toward Judaism In an integrated study of literary and cultural history Hellerstein shows the immensely important contribution made by women poets to Jewish literary tradition Index to Jewish Periodicals ,1964 Experimental Arts in Postwar Japan Miryam Sas,2020-03-17 In the years of rapid economic growth following the protest movements of the 1960s artists and intellectuals in Japan searched for a means of direct impact on the whirlwind of historical and cultural transformations of their time Yet while the artists often called for such direct encounter their works complicate this ideal with practices of interruption self reflexive mimesis and temporal discontinuity In an era known for idealism and activism some of the most cherished ideals intimacy between subjects authenticity a sense of home are limitlessly desired yet always just out of reach In this book Miryam Sas explores the theoretical and cultural implications of experimental arts in a range of media Casting light on important moments in the arts from the 1960s to the early 1980s this study focuses first on underground post shingeki theater and then on related works of experimental film and video buto dance and photography Emphasizing the complex and sophisticated theoretical grounding of these artists through their works practices and writings this book also locates Japanese experimental arts in an extensive sustained dialogue with key issues of contemporary critical theory Nearly Departed Gila Pfeffer,2024-07-09 2024 Winner of the Gilda Prize Story Circle Network s Women s Book Awards A Reading Group Choices Favorite Nonfiction Book of 2024 A sharp funny and heartfelt memoir of losing both parents to cancer and the daring choices Gila Pfeffer made to avoid the same early demise By the time she was thirty Gila Pfeffer was the oldest living member of her family having lost her mother to breast cancer and her father to colon cancer A simple blood test confirmed she carried the BRCA1 gene which put her at high risk of developing cancer herself Determined to break the cycle of early death in her family Gila decides to undergo an elective double mastectomy This memoir follows her journey as she becomes a reluctant expert on how to sit shiva grows up falls in love and enters motherhood before her life is derailed yet again Her double mastectomy reveals cancer already growing in one breast After enduring eight rounds of chemo and the removal of her ovaries she takes her last ever dip in the mikvah waters as a bald menopausal thirty five year old mother of four With chutzpah honed over years of repeatedly surviving the worst she manages to save her own life Drenched in Gila s dark humor Nearly Departed is a story about thriving against the odds committing to what s important and leaving a better legacy than the one you inherited

Brand,2013-05-15 Miryam T Brand explores how texts of the Second Temple period address the theological problem of the existence of sin and describe the source of human sin By surveying the relevant Apocrypha Pseudepigrapha and Dead Sea Scrolls as well as the works of Philo and where relevant Josephus the study determines the extent to which texts presentation of sin is influenced by genre and sectarian identification and identifies central worldviews regarding sin in the Second Temple period The analysis is divided into two parts the first explores texts that reflect a conviction that the source of sin is an innate human inclination and the second analyzes texts that depict sin as caused by demons The author demonstrates that the genre or purpose of a text is frequently a determining factor in its representation of sin particularly influencing the text s portrayal of sin as the result of human inclination versus demonic influence and sin as a free choice or as predetermined fact Second Temple authors and redactors chose representations of sin in accordance with their aims Thus prayers reflecting the experience of helplessness when encountering God present the desire to sin as impossible to overcome without divine assistance In contrast covenantal texts sectarian texts explaining the nature of the covenant emphasize freedom of choice and the human ability to turn away from the desire to sin Genre however is not the only determining factor regarding how sin is presented in these texts Approaches to sin in sectarian texts frequently built upon already accepted ideas reflected in nonsectarian literature adding aspects such as predestination the periodization of evil and a division of humanity into righteous members and evil nonmembers

Dandyism and Transcultural Modernity Hsiao-yen Peng, 2015-01-28 This book views the Neo Sensation mode of writing as a traveling genre or style that originated in France moved on to Japan and then to China The author contends that modernity is possible only on the transcultural site transcultural in the sense of breaking the divide between past and present elite and popular national and regional male and female literary and non literary inside and outside To illustrate the concept of transcultural modernity three icons are highlighted on the transcultural site the dandy the flaneur and the translator Mere flaneurs and flaneuses simply float with the tide of heterogeneous information on the transcultural site whereas the dandy flaneur and the cultural translator propellers of modernity manage to bring about transformative creation Their performance marks the essence of transcultural modernity the self consciousness of working on the threshold always testing the limits of boundaries and tempted to go beyond them To develop the concept of dandyism the quintessence of transcultural modernity the Neo Sensation gender triad formed by the dandy the modern girl and the modern boy is laid out Writers discussed include Liu Na ou a Shanghai dandy par excellence from Taiwan Paul Morand who looked upon Coco Chanel the female dandy as his perfect other self and Yokomitsu Riichi who developed the theory of Neo Sensation from Kant's the thing in itself American Jewish Archives, 1985
