relations between literary and non literary discourse It conceives of reception as a complex process of dialogic exchange and rather than offering large cultural generalizations it engages in close critical analysis of literary texts It explores in detail the ways in which English writers engagement with classical literature casts as much light on the classical originals as it does on the English writers own cultural context This fourth volume and second to appear in the series covers the years 1790 1880 and explores romantic and Victorian receptions of the classics Noting the changing fortunes of particular classical authors and the influence of developments in archaeology aesthetics and education it traces the interplay between classical and nineteenth century perceptions of gender class religion and the politics of republic and empire in chapters engaging with many of the major writers of this period The Literary World ,1893 He Mayor of Casterbridge Annotated Thomas Hardy,2020-10-11 The Mayor of Casterbridge opens with a shocking and haunting scene In a drunken rage Michael Henchard sells his wife and daughter to a visiting sailor at a local fair When they return to Casterbridge some nineteen years later Henchard having gained power and success as the mayor finds he cannot erase the past or the guilt that consumes him The Mayor of Casterbridge is a rich psychological novel about a man whose own flaws combine with fate to cause his ruin
