The Mountain Story English Edition:

The Toho Studios Story Stuart Galbraith IV, 2008-05-16 Since its inception in 1933 Toho Co Ltd Japan's most famous movie production company and distributor has produced and or distributed some of the most notable films ever to come out of Asia including Seven Samurai Godzilla When a Woman Ascends the Stairs Kwaidan Woman in the Dunes Ran Shall We Dance Ringo and Spirited Away While the western world often defines Toho by its iconic classics which include the Godzilla franchise and many of the greatest films of the legendary director Akira Kurosawa and actor Toshiro Mifune these pictures represent but a tiny fraction of Toho's rich history The Toho Studios Story A History and Complete Filmography provides a complete picture of every Toho feature the Japanese studio produced and released as well as foreign films that it distributed during its first 75 years Presented chronologically each entry in the filmography includes where applicable the original Japanese title a direct translation of that title the film's international U S release and alternate titles production credits including each film's producers director screenwriters cinematographers art directors and composers among others casts with character names production companies technical specs running times and release dates U S release data including distributor whether the film was released subtitled or dubbed and alternate versions domestic and international awards and plot synopses The Best American Short Stories ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story, 1929 The Collected Short Stories of George Moore Vol 2 Ann Heilmann, Mark Llewellyn, 2024-11-01 George Moore 1852-1933 was one of the most influential and versatile writers and journalists of the turn of the century This five volume reset critical edition addresses scholarly interest in Moore making available his generally neglected short story collections Best Short Stories, 1929 The Best Short Stories of ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story, 1929 The English Catalogue of Books for .., 1885 The Oxford Companion to Children's Literature Daniel Hahn, Michael Morpurgo, 2015 The last thirty years have witnessed one of the most fertile periods in the history of children's books A fascinating reference guide to the world of children's literature this volume covers every genre from fairy tales to chapbooks school stories to science fiction comics to children's hymns Telling the Story of Translation Judith Woodsworth, 2017-08-10 Scholars have long highlighted the links between translating and re-writing increasingly blurring the line between translations and so called original works Less emphasis has been placed on the work of writers who translate and the ways in which they conceptualize or even fictionalize the task of translation This book fills that gap and thus will be of interest to scholars in linguistics translation studies and literary studies Scrutinizing translation through a new lens Judith Woodsworth reveals the sometimes problematic relations between author and translator along with the evolution of the translator's voice and visibility The book investigates the uses and abuses of translation at the hands of George Bernard Shaw Gertrude Stein and Paul Auster prominent writers who bring into play assorted fictions as they tell their stories of translations Each case is interesting in itself because of the new material analysed and the conclusions reached

Translation is seen not only as an exercise and fruitful starting point it is also a way of paying tribute repaying a debt and cementing a friendship Taken together the case studies point the way to a teleology of translation and raise the question what is translation for Shaw Stein and Auster adopt an authorial posture that distinguishes them from other translators They stretch the boundaries of the translation proper their words spilling over into the liminal space of the text in some cases they hijack the act of translation to serve their own ends Through their tales of loss counterfeit and hard labour they cast an occasionally bleak glance at what it means to be a translator Yet they also pay homage to translation and provide fresh insights that continue to manifest themselves in current works of literature By engaging with translation as a literary act in its own right these eminent writers confer greater prestige on what has traditionally been viewed as a subservient art

Contemporary Chinese Novels and Short Stories, 1949-1974 Meishi Tsai, 2020-03-17 An annotated bibliography of contemporary Chinese novels and short stories published between 1949 and 1974 Includes succinct summaries and bibliographic details including references to translations for virtually all fictional works published in China during this period Also includes author title and subject indexes

Local Place and the Arthurian Tradition in England and Wales, 1400-1700 Mary Bateman, 2023 The first in depth study of Arthurian places in late medieval and early modern England and Wales Winner of the 2024 Dhira B Mahoney Prize for Outstanding Scholarly Book in Arthurian Studies Places have the power to suspend disbelief even concerning unbelievable subjects The many locations associated with King Arthur show this to be true from Tintagel in Cornwall to Caerleon in Wales But how and why did Arthurian sites come to proliferate across the English and Welsh landscape What role did the medieval custodians of Arthurian abbeys churches cathedrals and castles play in placing Arthur How did visitors experience Arthur in situ and how did their experiences permeate into wider Arthurian tradition And why in history and even today have particular places proven so powerful in defending the impression of Arthur's reality This book the first in depth study of Arthurian places in late medieval and early modern England and Wales provides an answer to these questions Beginning with an examination of on site experiences of Arthur at locations including Glastonbury York Dover and Cirencester it traces the impact that they had on visitors among them John Hardyng John Leland William Camden who subsequently used them as justification for the existence of Arthur in their writings It shows how the local Arthur was manifested through textual and material culture in chronicles notebooks and antiquarian works in stained glass windows earthworks and display tablets Via a careful piecing together of the evidence the volume argues that a new history of Arthur begins to emerge a local history of on site experiences of Arthur at locations including Glastonbury York Dover and Cirencester it traces the impact that they had on visitors among them John Hardyng John Leland William Camden who subsequently used them as justification for the existence of Arthur in their writings It shows how the local Arthur was manifested through textual and material culture in chronicles notebooks and antiquarian works in stained glass windows earthworks and display tablets Via a careful piecing together of the evidence the volume argues that a new history of Arthur
