Cultural Legal Studies Cassandra Sharp, Marett

Leiboff, 2015-07-24 What can law s popular cultures do for law as a constitutive and interrogative critical practice This collection explores such a question through the lens of the cultural legal studies movement which proffers a new encounter with the cultural turn in law and legal theory Moving beyond the law and literature humanities culture film visual and aesthetics on which it is based this book demonstrates how the techniques and practices of cultural legal studies can be used to metamorphose law and the legalities that underpin its popular imaginary By drawing on three different modes of cultural legal studies storytelling technology and jurisprudence the collection showcases the intersectional practices of cultural legal studies and law in its popular cultural mode The contributors to the collection deploy differentiated modes of cultural legal studies practice adopting diverse philosophical disciplinary methodological and theoretical approaches and subjects of examination The collection draws on this mix of diversity and homogeneity to thread together its overarching theme that we must take seriously an interrogation of law as culture and in its cultural form That is it does not ask how a text represents law but rather how the representational nature of both law and culture intersect so that the juridical become visible in various cultural manifestations In short it asks how law s popular cultures actively effect the metamorphosis of law

Mormon Sons - Brian Draper Torey Adamcik Pamela Lillian Valemont, 2015-09-12 When the police came for him Torey declared he knew nothing at all about it The good Mormon boy was quick to point out that he had seen marijuana paraphernalia inside the home located in a smoking room What he failed to mention was that he and his Mormon friend Brian had stabbed the homeowner's niece to death with 29 horrific plunges from the arsenal of knives they had bought especially for the occasion. She had wanted to be an attorney; they were obsessed with horror films. They had big plans to be film actors, directors or whatever. So they wrote their own film script with 16-year-old Cassie as the star. She was perfect for the role; they said. Long dark hair parted down the middle. Ted Bundy would have loved her. He was their idol. They wanted to be famous, just like him. Their big mistake lay in filming their masterpiece. It earned them the biggest award for any movie ever made by juveniles: a prison term of life without parole in the Idaho Correctional Centre.

Unfit To Fly: Andreas Lubitz Pamela Lillian Valemont, 2015-04-04. Declared unfit to fly, Andreas Lubitz, doctor, did not notify authorities. The co-pilot tore up the sick note and reported for work. Then he locked the pilot out of the cabin and drove the plane at 700mph into the Alps, killing himself and 149 others aboard instantly. What evil possessed him to do such a horrific thing? Men, women and little children forced to accompany him on his suicide mission. For five whole torturous minutes, the passengers aboard Flight 9525 screamed in terror as the plane went down. Why did he do it? Those were the questions on everyone's lips when Andreas Lubitz drove the Germanwings A320 Airbus he was co-piloting into the French Alps. The plane hit with such force that bodies shattered into pieces and scattered over the craggy terrain, made recovery enormously hazardous. DNA was used to piece together bodies for relatives to claim. This forensic, numerological criminal profile of Andreas Gunter Lubitz gives an insight into the man who committed this kamikaze carnage.

Mind Behind The Crime Cheryl Critchley, Helen McGrath, 2018-06-26. Nurses and neighbours, partners and parents, all murderers who shocked Australia with the severity of their crimes. But what makes them tick? Society couple Michael O'Neill and Stuart Rattle had it all: their lavish country property, their interior design business, until Michael bludgeoned Stuart to death with a cooking pan. Akon Guode intentionally drove into a lake, leaving three of her children trapped in the car to drown. Geoff Hunt, pillar of the local community, shot dead his wife and their three children before killing himself. From feuds on the farm to the infamous Lindt Café Siege in Sydney, Mind Behind the Crime profiles Australia's most horrific and often most unlikely killers. Renowned psychologist Dr Helen McGrath and prolific journalist Cheryl Critchley, authors of the bestselling Why Did They Do It, join forces again to unpack the crimes and discover the personality disorders of the perpetrators. They use psychoanalysis and scientific methodology to uncover the circumstances and motives of our country's most notorious murderers and to really understand the mind behind the crime.
