Makowsky, 2016-03-21 In the first book length study of Valerie Martin s fiction Veronica Makowsky explores the work of this lauded but often overlooked contemporary novelist Winner of the Orange Prize for her novel Property 2003 Martin also won the Kafka Prize for Mary Reilly 1990 which was then translated into sixteen languages and made into a popular film Despite these successes her critically acclaimed novels and stories have yet to attain a broad readership Makowsky addresses this disconnect through a detailed critical study of Martin s distinguished oeuvre grounding each work in its historical cultural and theoretical contexts Makowsky begins with a sketch of Martin s life and then considers each of her ten novels and four collections of short stories Throughout Makowsky's deft critique reveals Martin to be an astute observer of people and places Pointing to both early works like A Recent Martyr 1987 and recent books such as The Ghost of the Mary Celeste 2014 Makowsky identifies a potent mixture of pleasure and fear in Martin's writing that emphasizes the author's nuanced exploration of human imagination Notable too are Martin's literary techniques especially point of view and her allusions to masterpieces in Western literature The works of Henry and William James in particular influenced Martin's thematic blend of intellectualism and empathy evident in her rounded depictions of women in works like Italian Fever 1999 and The Great Divorce 1994 A rich and substantive study The Fiction of Valerie Martin demonstrates and deconstructs the mastery of this thought provoking author in turn firmly establishing Martin's place in the canon of contemporary writers The Great Mary Celeste Hoax Laurence J.
