From Deborah to Esther Lillian Rae Klein, 2003 The Hebrew Bible s fascinating narratives about women have occasioned some of the most important biblical scholarship of the last generation Lillian Klein contributes to that wealth with her absorbing studies of key figures in the narrative material Deborah Jephtha s daughter Delilah Jael the whore of Gaza Kaleb s daughter Achsah Hannah Esther the wife of Job David s wife Michal and Bathsheba With a marvelous eye for the telling detail or its absence Klein examines the biblical portraits often unfortunately brief of these women and the dynamics of gender power and honor at work in their stories A remarkably lucid and careful scholar Klein has surfaced the underlying and ironic ideals of womanhood in a society that both honored and marginalized women in stories of seduction and rivalry deviation and obedience public shame and private power

The Good Enough Manager Aaron J. Nurick, 2012-04-23 The central questions of this book are How do the best managers behave What sets them apart from their peers What impact do they have on their subordinates and co workers The theme and organizing idea of the book is the good enough manager or GEM The concept is based on the psychological theory of the good enough mother who provides an environment where an infant learns to develop an autonomous and genuine self She does this by responding with empathy and adapting her behavior completely meeting the child s needs in the beginning and then gradually letting go allowing more autonomy and room for the child to add something uniquely his own to the relationship This book is based on a primary principle Just as there is no such thing as a perfect parent managing people in organizations is an inherently human and fallible endeavor mainly because managing occurs by and through human relationships Through the words of over 1000 study respondents GEMs are shown to be mentors and teachers relationship builders and models of integrity for their workers Each of these themes is explored making connections to the right brain thinking of artists and other creative professionals managing with emotional intelligence and historical ideas about management and leadership as adaptive human processes
