The Nostalgia Cafe:

The Ruins of Nostalgia Donna Stonecipher, 2023-10-10 What is it to feel nostalgia to be skeptical of it yet cleave intently to the complex truths of feeling and thought In a series of 64 gorgeous ramifying unsettling prose poems addressing late twentieth and twenty first century experience and its discontents The Ruins of Nostalgia offers a strikingly original exploration of the misunderstood phenomenon of nostalgia as both feeling state and historical phenomenon Each poem also titled The Ruins of Nostalgia is a kind of lyrical mini essay playful passionate analytic Some poems take a location memory conceit or object as their theme Throughout the series the poems recognize and celebrate the nostalgias they ironize which are in turn celebrated and then ironized again Written often in the fictional persona of the first person plural The Ruins of Nostalgia explores the rich territory where individual response meets a collective phenomenon sample poem The Ruins of Nostalgia 13 Where once there had been a low end stationery store minded by an elderly beauty queen there was now a store for high end espresso machines minded by nobody Where once there had been an illegal beer garden in a weedy lot there was now a complex of luxury lofts with Parisian style ivory fa ades Where once there had been a bookstore and a bike shop and a bakery there was now a wax museum for tourists Where once there had been an empty lot there was now a building Where once there had been an empty lot there was now a building Where once there had been an empty lot there was now a building Where once there had been farms there were now subdivisions Where once there had been subdivisions there were now sub subdivisions We lived in a sub subdivision of a subdivision We ourselves had become subdivided where once we had merely been of two minds Where once there had been a river there was now a road A vocal local group had started a movement to break up the road and daylight the river which still flowed in the dark underneath the road Could we daylight the farms the empty lots the stationery store the elderly beauty queen the city we moved to Was it still flowing somewhere under the luxury lofts deliquescing in the dark inhabited by our luxury selves not yet subdivided because not yet whole Could we daylight the ruins of nostalgia
