Daughters, Fathers, and the Novel Lynda Marie Zwinger, 1991 Interprets the fundamental relationship between fathers and daughters in fiction as the father proposing and the daughter either accepting or refusing Considers a wide range of works and writers from Little Women and Huckle Finn to Henry James and The Story of O Paper edition unseen 12 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Novel Relations Ruth Perry, 2004-08-05 Ruth Perry describes the transformation of the English family as a function of several major social changes taking place in the eighteenth century including the development of a market economy and waged labor enclosure and the redistribution of land urbanization the rise of the middle class and the development of print culture In particular Perry traces the shift from a kinship orientation based on blood relations to a kinship axis constituted by conjugal ties as it is revealed in popular literature of the second half of the eighteenth century Perry focuses particularly on the effect these changes had on women's position in families She uses social history literary analysis and anthropological kinship theory to examine texts by Samuel Richardson Charlotte Lennox Henry MacKenzie Frances Burney Jane Austen and many others This important study by a leading eighteenth century scholar will be of interest to social and literary historians      The Mother / Daughter Plot Marianne Hirsch, 1989-10-22 Mothers and daughters the female figures neglected by classic psychoanalysis and submerged in traditional narrative are at the center of this book The novels of nineteenth and twentieth century women writers from the Western European and North American traditions reveal that the story of motherhood remains the unspeakable plot of Western culture Focusing on the feminine and more controversially on the maternal this book alters our perception of both the familial structures basic to traditional narrative the Oedipus story and the narrative structures basic to traditional representations of the family Freud's family romance Confronting psychoanalytic theories of subject formation with narrative theories Marianne Hirsch traces the emergence and transformation of female family romance patterns from Jane Austen to Marguerite Duras      New Visions of Community in Contemporary American Fiction Magali Cornier Michael, 2008-04 In this engaging optimistic close reading of five late twentieth century novels by American women Magali Cornier Michael illuminates the ways in which their authors engage with ideas of communal activism common commitment and social transformation The fictions she examines imagine coalition building as a means of moving toward new forms of nonhierarchical justice for ethnic cultures that as a result of racist attitudes have not been assimilated power with each other rather than power over each other is a collective goal Michael argues that much contemporary American fiction by women offers models of care and nurturing that move away from the private sphere toward the public and political Specifically texts by women from such racially marked ethnic groups as African American Asian American Native American and Mexican American draw from the rich systems of thought histories and experiences of these hybrid cultures and thus offer feminist and ethical revisions of traditional concepts of community coalition subjectivity and agency Focusing on Amy Tan's The Joy Luck Club Barbara Kingsolver's The Bean Trees and Pigs in Heaven Ana Castillo's So Far from God and Toni Morrison's Paradise Michael shows that each writer emphasizes the positive liberating effects of kinship and community These hybrid versions of community which draw from other than dominant culturally specific ideas and histories have something to offer Americans as the United States moves into an increasingly diverse twenty-first century Michael provides a rich lens through which to view both contemporary fiction and contemporary life      The Reign of God is Such as These Sharon Betsworth, 2010-09-30 This is a new analysis of the daughters in the Gospel of Mark Betsworth analyzes the daughters in the Gospel of Mark the woman from the crowd whom Jesus calls daughter Jairus daughter 5:21-43 Herodias daughter 6:14-29 and the daughter of the Syro-Phoenician woman 7:24-30 To demonstrate how the Gospel's first century audience may have heard these stories Betsworth begins by examining daughters in their ancient Mediterranean context Betsworth then considers representations of daughters in select texts from the Septuagint and Greco-Roman literature from the seventh and sixth centuries B.C.E. to the second century C.E. Although these depictions seem to be in contrast to the social historical construction of daughters Betsworth shows that in many ways the literary portrayals of daughters function to uphold the values of Greco-Roman culture especially those of virginity before and faithfulness in marriage These two lines of enquiry undergird Betsworth's investigation From it she is able to show that the daughters in the Gospel uphold the values of the reign of God as an integral part of the Gospel's inclusive social vision of God's reign This title was formerly the Journal for the Study of the New Testament Supplement a book series that explores the many aspects of New Testament study including historical perspectives social scientific and literary theory and theological cultural and contextual approaches Novel Affinities Sarah Vandegrift Eldridge, 2016 Challenges traditional novel scholarship that emphasizes the individual and the Bildungsroman broadening the focus to the family and both canonical and non canonical novels reading them together with biological legal and pedagogical texts Select Novels, 1860 The Novels of Madame de Souza in Social and Political Perspective Kirsty Carpenter, 2007 Madame de Souza's seven major novels written in the period from 1794 to 1822 show the emergence of the female authored French novel and the novel's role as a vehicle for political ideas during the revolutionary period The novels Ad le de S nange Emilie et Alphonse Charles et Marie Eug nie et Mathilde Eug ne de Rothelin Mademoiselle de Tournon and La comtesse de Fargy make an important contribution to early nineteenth century French literature Madame de Souza was an acute observer of the intimate workings of Paris society and of social and political change in the years 1789-1830 Unedited extracts from her novels Etre et Para tre and other less complete manuscripts appear here in print for the first time The author was born in 1761 and lived through the political regimes of a Revolution Empire and Restoration dying in Paris in 1836 She had a long life filled with friends correspondents and travels in Britain and Europe and she was admired by literary critics like Sismondi and Marie Joseph Ch nier Until now a small amount of research has been focused on her first novel Ad le de S nange but this book shows that this is only one of seven works that should be better known than they are at present A Multitude of Women Stefania Lucamante, 2008-01-01 A Multitude of Women looks at the ways in which both Italian literary tradition and external influences have assisted Italian women writers in rethinking the theoretical and aesthetic ties between author text and readership in the construction of the novel Stefania Lucamante discusses the valuable contributions that Italian women writers have made to the contemporary novel and illustrates the relevance of the novelistic examples set by their predecessors She addresses various discursive communities reading works by Di Lascia Ferrante Vinci and others with reference to intertextuality and the theories of Elsa Morante and Simone de Beauvoir This study identifies a positive deviation from literary and ideological orthodoxy a deviation that helps give meaning to the Italian novel and to transform the traditional notion of the canon in Italian literature Lucamante argues that this is partly due to the merits of women writers and their ability to eschew obsolete patterns in narrative while favouring forms that are more attuned to the ever changing needs of society She shows that contemporary novels by women authors mirror a shift from previous trends in which the need for female emancipation interfered with the actual literary and aesthetic significance of the novel A Multitude of Women offers a new epistemology of the novel and will appeal to those interested in women's writing readership Italian

The Lives of the Novel Thomas G. Pavel,2015-06-30 Reprint Originally published Princeton New Jersey Princeton University Press A 2013     Dickens and the Daughter of the House Hilary M. Schor,2000-01-27 Feminist criticism has not been kind to Charles Dickens The characters George Orwell referred to as legless angels Little Nell Agnes Wickfield Esther Summerson and others have been conjured as evidence of Dickens inability to create real women Critics wishing to rescue him have turned to the dark angry women Nancy Lady Dedlock Miss Wade who disrupt the calm surface of some of Dickens novels In this book Hilary M Schor argues that the role of the good daughter is interwoven with that of her angry double in Dickens fiction and is the centre of narrative authority in the Dickens novel As the good daughters must leave their father s house and enter the world of the marketplace they transform and rewrite the stories they are empowered to tell The daughter s uncertain legal status and her power of narrative gave Dickens a way of reading and writing his own culture differently     Lynd Ward's Wordless Novels, 1929-1937 Grant F. Scott,2022-05-30 This book offers the first multidisciplinary analysis of the wordless novels of American woodcut artist and illustrator Lynd Ward 1905 1985 who has been enormously influential in the development of the contemporary graphic novel The study examines his six pictorial novels each part of an evolving experiment in a new form of visual narrative that offers a keen intervention in the cultural and sexual politics of the 1930s The novels form a discrete group much like Beethoven s piano sonatas or Keats s great odes in which Ward evolves a unique modernist style cinematic expressionist futurist realist documentary and grapples with significant cultural and political ideas in a moment when the American experiment and capitalism itself hung in the balance In testing the limits of a new narrative form Ward s novels require a versatile critical framework as sensitive to German Expressionism and Weimar cinema as to labor politics and the new energies of proletarian homosexuality     A New and Complete Collection of Interesting Romances and Novels Mr. Porney,1780     The Crime Fiction Handbook Peter Messent,2012-11-28 The Crime Fiction Handbook presents a comprehensive introduction to the origins development and cultural significance of the crime fiction genre focusing mainly on American British and Scandinavian texts Provides an accessible and well written introduction to the genre of crime fiction Moves with ease between a general overview of the genre and useful theoretical approaches Includes a close analysis of the key texts in the crime fiction tradition Identifies what makes crime fiction of such cultural importance and illuminates the social and political anxieties at its heart Shows the similarities and differences between British American and Scandinavian crime fiction traditions     Milestones on a Golden Road Richard King,2013-01-15 In Milestones on a Golden Road Richard King presents pivotal works of fiction produced in four key periods of Chinese revolutionary history the civil war 1945 49 the Great Leap Forward 1958 60 the Cultural Revolution 1966 76 and the post Mao catharsis 1979 80 Taking its cues from the Soviet Union s optimistic depictions of a society liberated by Communism the official Chinese literature of this era is characterized by grand narratives of progress Addressing questions of literary production King looks at how writers dealt with shifting ideological demands what indigenous and imported traditions inspired them and how they were able to depict a utopian Communist future to their readers even as the present took a very different turn Early red classics were followed by works featuring increasingly lurid images of joyful socialism and later by fiction exposing the Mao era as an age of irrationality arbitrary rule and suffering a Golden Road that had led to nowhere      The Stanford Companion to Victorian Fiction John Sutherland, 1989 An engaging guide to a rich literary heritage The Stanford Companion presents a fascinating parade of novels authors publishers editors reviewers illustrators and periodicals that created the culture of Victorian fiction Its more than 6 000 alphabetical entries provide an incomparable range of useful and little known source material its scholarship enlivened by the author s wit and candor
