Eleonora Sasso, 2020-06-30 Late Victorian Orientalism is a work of scholarly research pushing forward disciplines into new areas of enquiry This collection of essays tries to redefine the task of interpreting the East in the nineteenth century taking as a starting point Edward Said's Orientalism 1978 in order to investigate the visual fantasised and imperialist representations of the East as well as the most exemplary translations of Oriental texts The Victorians envisioned the East in many different modes or Orientalisms since as Said suggested there were perhaps as many Orientalisms as Orientalists By combining together Western and Oriental modes of art this study is not only aimed at filling a gap in Victorian and Oriental studies but also at broadening the audiences it is intended for
