

Ellen Westbury's Story

"After everything I have done in this city, I cannot believe it!" - Ellen Westbury

Part 1 (1842)

"I cannot describe my emotions here, because the people in my room are not even aware that they are helping humanity," said Westbury to her friends. "I know, the women in my room know the value of doing truly excellent works, providing for things that would always and necessarily change through every changing circumstance, which I have learned gradually, realizing myself, by the time."

"I have never before," said Ellen Westbury, "because I am so confident that I will find solutions, particularly in relation to the things that I am doing, and I am not alone in this."

"I am not alone," said Westbury, "because I am not alone in this, and I am not alone in this."

"I am not alone," said Westbury, "because I am not alone in this, and I am not alone in this."
