M. Eras,2019 Locks and Keys throughout the Ages is widely considered the best book ever written on the history and development of locks It is illustrated throughout with photos from the famous and extensive Lips Collection It was written in 1957 by Vincent J M Eras the director of one of the most respected and important lock manufacturing companies in the world at that time the Lips Safe and Lock Manufacturing Company now part of the ASSA ABLOY Group along with Yale Chubb and many other once independent manufacturers The author was not only a master locksmith who held several important patents but he was also an avid collector and was passionate about the history and development of locking mechanisms His extensive knowledge of the field comes across on every page In fact Eras had been in the lock manufacturing business for 58 years before he wrote this book In the preface he states I consider it a gratifying task to place on record my experiences and through this book save them from oblivion At the same time an excellent opportunity is presented to show the reader my collection of antique and modern locks the tangible result of more than 50 years travelling searching and study in many countries In over 280 black and white photos and drawings Vincent Eras brings us on a grand tour of the development of locks from prehistoric to modern times and also explains to us in words and illustrations how their mechanisms work This is a high quality hardcover reprint of the 1957 edition of the book done by special arrangement with ASSA ABLOY The typeface has been completely re done and the photographs have been corrected using the latest digital correction technology The quality is equal to and in many cases better than the original 1957 edition A reprint of this book was done in the UK in the 1970s but the quality was poor Artisan Ideas is very glad to be able to make this fascinating book available to the public again Hardcover 184 pages 284 black and white photos and designs
