Ideology and Hegemony of English Foreign Language Textbooks Ömer Gökhan Ulum, Dinçay Köksal, 2020-01-27 This volume investigates ideological and hegemonic practices in globally and locally written English as a Foreign Language EFL textbooks and explores whether these textbooks reflect the values beliefs and norms of the native speaker society by examining their ideological components and the hegemonic practices by means of which the source society or state seeks to influence learners of the language It also attempts to clarify EFL teachers and students views on the underlying ideology and hegemonic practices in globally and locally written EFL textbooks Studies on the relationship between ideology hegemony and textbooks in applied linguistics have become more prevalent in recent decades as the emergence of critical theory critical pedagogy and critical thinking skills from the 1920s onwards has led scholars to adopt a more critical perspective towards EFL textbooks especially with regard to elements of ideology and hegemony These two terms encompass a plethora of components ranging from nationalism to religion At the same time the importance of metanarratives originating from the tenets of modernism has declined from the 1960s onwards the assumption being that the world has entered a new age called postmodernism and post structuralism that emphasizes the role of individuals and rejects efforts to reinforce post colonialism the effects of which can be seen in EFL textbooks Accordingly taking the elements of ideology and hegemony into account remains a vital aspect in the analysis of EFL textbooks      Totalitarianism Phillip W. The Victims of Slavery, Colonization and the Holocaust Kitty Millet, 2017-03-09 This book provides a sophisticated investigation into the experience of being exterminated as felt by victims of the Holocaust and compares and contrasts this analysis with the experiences of people who have been colonized or enslaved Using numerous victim accounts and a wide range of primary sources the book moves away from the continuity thesis with its insistence on colonial intent as the reason for victimization in relation to other historical examples of mass political violence to look at the victim experience on its own terms By affording each constituent case study its own distinctive aspects The Victims of Slavery Colonization and the Holocaust allows for a more enriching comparison of victim experience to be made that respects each group of victims in their uniqueness It is an important innovative volume for all students of the Holocaust genocide and the history of mass political violence
