The Oxford Dictionary Of Islam:

The Oxford Dictionary of Islam John L. Esposito, 2003-05-15 Designed for general readers with little or no knowledge of Islam this dictionary provides more than 2000 entries organized in an easy to use A Z format Entries cover major political movements landmarks and events and include terms from Islamic law and biographical profiles Oxford Dictionary of Islam , The Oxford dictionary of Islam John L. Esposito, 2003 Designed for readers with little or no knowledge of Islam the Oxford Dictionary of Islam provides vividly written up to date and authoritative entries The Dictionary focuses primarily on the 19th and 20th centuries providing a highly informative look at the religious political and social spheres of the modern Islamic world There are entries on topics of current interest such as terrorism and the Taliban Osama bin Laden and al Qaida the PLO and HAMAS but the coverage also includes biographical profiles and entries covering major political movements militant groups religious sects terms from Islamic law culture and religion key historical events and important landmarks A series of entries look at Islam in individual nations and there are discussions of Islamic views on contemporary issues A Critical View of The Oxford Dictionary of Islam Nouf Sulaiman al-Shamari, 2010 The Oxford Encyclopedia of Islam and Women , 2013-10 The Oxford Encyclopedia of Islam and Women will provide clear current comprehensive information on the major topics of scholarly interest within the study of Islam and women The A to Z of Islam Ludwig W. Adamec, 2009-09-02 There is both unity and variety in the Islamic world Muslims are not a homogeneous people who can be explained solely by their normative texts the Koran and the Sunnah Muslims differ vastly in their interpretation of Islam modernists want to reinterpret Islam to adapt to the requirements of modern times while traditionalists tend to look to the classical and medieval periods of Islam as their model of the Islamic state The A to Z of Islam presents a concise overview of Islamic history religion philosophy and Islamic political movements This is done through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries which include the biographies and thoughts of medieval thinkers as well as those of modern members of the religious and political establishments Articles describe the major sects schools of theology and jurisprudence as well as aspects of Islamic culture Together this book represents a brief introduction to the field of Islamic studies Islam, Constitutional Law and Human Rights Tommaso Virgili, 2021-09-15 This book focuses on Islamic constitutionalism and in particular on the relation between religion and the protection of individual liberties potentially clashing with sharica and the Islamic ethos The analysis goes from general to particular starting with a theoretical overview on constitutionalism human rights and Islam moving to the assessment of the post Arab Spring Constitutions of Egypt and Tunisia and concluding with a specific focus on the rights of sexual minorities and freethinkers Part I provides a theoretical account of the conception of constitutionalism and human rights in Islam compared and contrasted with Western constitutionalism A set of issues where the tension between sharica and human rights is accentuated is analysed against the backdrop of the main Islamic charters of rights Part II conducts a similar assessment based on the Constitutions of Tunisia and Egypt the two main epicentres of the Arab Spring Part III moves to two specific rights in the same countries from the twofold perspective of the Constitutions and international law the freedom from interference in one's intimate life with particular regard to homosexuality and the freedom of holding and expressing nonconventional beliefs deemed unacceptable from the point of view of traditional Islam These issues have been chosen as representative of the most controversial still considered taboo in both legal and social terms hence at the fringes of the debate on individual freedoms Focusing on two overlooked and underexplored issues the work thus pushes the boundaries of the human rights discourse in Muslim contexts

The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 5, The Islamic World in the Age of Western Dominance Francis Robinson, 2010-11-04 Volume 5 of The New Cambridge History of Islam examines the history of Muslim societies from 1800 to the present Francis Robinson a leading historian of Islam has brought together a team of scholars with a broad range of expertise to explore how Muslims responded to the challenges of Western conquest and domination across the last two hundred years As their articles reveal the social economic political and historical circumstances which influenced these responses have in many different parts of the world empowered Muslim societies and encouraged transformation and religious revival The volume offers a fascinating glimpse into the local dimensions of that revival and how regional connections have been forged Synthesising the academic research of the past thirty years as well as offering substantial guidance for further study this book is the starting point for all those who wish to have a serious understanding of modern Muslim societies

The A to Z of Sacred Music Joseph P. Swain, 2010-04-09 Nearly all religious traditions have reserved a special place for sacred music Whether it is music accompanying a ritual or purely for devotional purposes music composed for entire congregations or for the trained soloist or music set to holy words or purely instrumental in some form or another music is present In fact in some traditions the relation between the music and the ritual is so intimate that to distinguish between them would be inaccurate The A to Z of Sacred Music covers the most important aspects of the sacred music of Buddhism Christianity Confucianism Hinduism Islam Judaism and other smaller religious groups It provides useful information on all the significant traditions of this music through the use of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on major types of music composers key religious figures specialized positions genres of composition technical terms instruments fundamental documents and sources significant places and important musical compositions
