

A man and a woman are shown in a romantic embrace. The man is shirtless, muscular, and has long dark hair. He is wearing blue jeans and has his arms around the woman. The woman has long dark hair and is wearing a white tank top and blue jeans. They are standing in front of a dark brown background. The man is looking down at the woman, and she is looking up at him with a smile. The overall mood is intimate and sensual.

Clinical Evolutions on the Superego, Body, and Gender in Psychoanalysis Janice S. Lieberman, 2018-09-03 Patients in psychoanalytic treatment present with a variety of problems that reflect contemporary cultural issues and values Clinical Evolutions on the Superego Body and Gender in Psychoanalysis explores the effects of such societal changes on psychoanalytic theory and clinical practice covering topics such as greed envy and deception body narcissism gender roles and relationships Janice S Lieberman includes numerous clinical vignettes and insights into working clinically with changing norms Lieberman explores how changes in values and norms of behavior in the world beyond the consulting room have influenced what is now heard by analysts within it using clinical data to demonstrate the psychological underpinnings of the values promulgated by current trends in politics and in society more widely She explores what she observes to be a new superego where deception abounds and often goes unpunished where greed and envy have arguably increased and there is an enhanced emphasis on the body and its appearance Traditional gender roles have been challenged in fortuitous ways but a certain amount of chaos and confusion has ensued Relationships are found and maintained using technology yet many feel lonely and empty She writes about the clinical dilemmas she has faced and offers suggestions for resolving them in working with today's patients Lieberman also sees parallels for these developments in several artists lives and in their work Clinical Evolutions on the Superego Body and Gender in Psychoanalysis will be of great interest to psychoanalysts and psychoanalytic psychotherapists

Masquerade Jim Elledge, 2004 Masquerade is the most comprehensive anthology yet published of poetry by American gays lesbians bisexuals and transgendered persons It includes representative poems from more than 100 writers from pre colonial times to the end of the Second World War The anthology begins with selections of anonymous texts from the oral traditions of Hawaii and Native America followed by voodoo chants and cowboy songs with a few limericks thrown in for good measure The selections are arranged by the year of the poet's birth and include samplings of poetry by a racially and ethnically diverse group of men and women Contemporary readers will know the work of some of these poets such as Gertrude Stein and Walt Whitman Other poets such as George Santayana and Adah Isaacs Menken will be strangers to most In all these poets created a rich heritage of verse that has been for the most part masked throughout the history of American literature

Rancher After Midnight by Karen Booth Musical Masquerade Kathy Bunn Schultz, Hoo-Doo Cowboys and Bronze Buckaroos Michael K. Johnson, 2014-01-08 Hoo Doo Cowboys and Bronze Buckaroos undertakes an interdisciplinary exploration of the African American West through close readings of texts from a variety of media This approach allows for both an in depth analysis of individual texts and a discussion of material often left out or underrepresented in studies focused only on traditional literary material The book engages heretofore unexamined writing by Rose Gordon who wrote for local Montana newspapers rather than for a national audience memoirs and letters of musicians performers and singers such as W C Handy and Taylor Gordon who lived in or wrote about touring the American West the novels and films of Oscar Micheaux

black cast westerns starring Herb Jeffries largely unappreciated and unexamined episodes from the golden age of western television that feature African American actors film and television westerns that use science fiction settings to imagine a postracial or postsoul frontier Percival Everett's fiction addressing contemporary black western experience and movies as recent as Quentin Tarantino's Django Unchained Despite recent interest in the history of the African American West we know very little about how the African American past in the West has been depicted in a full range of imaginative forms Hoo Doo Cowboys and Bronze Buckaroos advances our discovery of how the African American West has been experienced imagined portrayed and performed
