The Future of Executive Development Mihnea C. Moldoveanu, Das Narayandas, 2021-11-30 Executive development programs have entered a period of rapid transformation driven by digital disruption and a widening gap between the skills that participants and their organizations demand and those provided by their executive programs This work delves into the objective functions of the executive development space analyzes the demand characteristics of the learners and the organizations that pay for the programs and the ways in which business schools and other providers deliver or not on the promises they make regarding skill development and the continued value of learning to the organization They show how a trio of disruptive forces disintermediation disaggregation and decoupling which have figured prominently in industries disrupted by digitalization are reshaping the structure of demand for executive development The authors look at the future of executive development in the era of self refining algorithms aka machine learning and wearable sensors and computers and offer a compass for making the right choice for CEOs and CLOs who are guiding executive program design Ultimately they offer a guide for to optimize the learning production function for both skill acquisition and skill transfer the two charges that the new skills economy has laid out for any educational enterprise

McKinsey's Marvin Bower Elizabeth Haas Edersheim, 2010-12-13 I had the privilege of working closely with Marvin and McKinsey for many years This book makes Marvin come to life and perpetuates him as a role model Peter F Drucker A wonderful book about a wonderful man In many ways Marvin s McKinsey framed the hypotheses in our own search for excellence for example passion for values belief in people as the prime resource and willingness to let people experiment As well as I thought I knew Marvin however this remarkable book drawing on the collective memories of those who worked most closely with him taught me a ton about how extraordinary the man really was and what made him that way Many have called Drucker the man who invented management I think history will conclude that both he and Marvin Bower share that pedestal Bob Waterman coauthor of In Search of Excellence Marvin Bower became a legend not just within McKinsey Company but within professional services and the business world more broadly In everything he did and said he embodied the professional approach and the importance of values This book sheds remarkable insight on a remarkable man and on the power of constancy of purpose Ian Davis Worldwide Managing Director McKinsey Co It is as Marvin would have wanted it simple honest fact based wonderful stories with a long term perspective An insightful read about the father of management consulting Lois Juliber retired COO Colgate Palmolive This book provides fascinating insight into the early days of modern management consulting It is an extremely enlightening look at the origin of one of America s most important professions and one of America s most innovative leaders Thomas H Lee founder Chairman and President Thomas H Lee Partners L P
