

Citing your References in the MHRA Style: A Guide for English and Drama Students

The MHRA referencing style is required by the English Literature and Drama courses at Oxford Brookes University. This guide covers most of the things you'll need to know about referencing in MHRA, but if you have a query not covered here, check the latest version of the MHRA Style Guide [V3.1] which is available online via the Library Subject Help pages for English at <http://www.brookes.ac.uk/library/english/engmhra.html> or directly from the MHRA web site at: <http://www.mhra.org.uk/Publications/Books/StyleGuide/download.shtml>. The print version of the MHRA Style Guide (3rd edn, 2013) is held in the Library at 808.02/MOD. Cite Them Right Online also includes advice and examples of referencing in the MHRA style – you can access it via the link at <http://www.brookes.ac.uk/library/english/engmhra.html>

If you have any queries about referencing, check with your tutor or the Librarian for English and Drama.

How to use this guide

Part I gives guidelines and examples of referencing different kinds of publications. You can copy the relevant footnote/bibliography template into your Word document and replace the elements with the details you have, making sure to check the notes on the left.

Part II covers referencing practice and explains how to use references and quotes in your written work.

Part I. How to cite specific types of sources

- If any publication details are not given in the source, use: '[n.p.]' (= no place), '[n. pub.]' (= no publisher), '[n.d.]' (= no date)
- Put a full stop at the end of footnote references, but not at the end of bibliography references.
- The bibliography needs to be arranged alphabetically by author surname, so always reverse the name of the first author (or editor) in the bibliography, as in the examples below.

1. Books

1.1 Book with author(s) Title: Use book title as it appears on the title page. Edition: Include edition if not the first, in the form '2nd edn', 'rev. edn' etc, preceded by a comma. Page numbers: Include in footnote references only, in the form 'p.' for 'page' or 'pp.' for 'pages'.	Footnote format: Firstname Lastname, Book Title (Place of publication: Publisher, Year), p. x. Janette Dillon, The Cambridge Introduction to Early English Theatre (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2006), p. 34. Mick Wallis and Simon Shepherd, Studying Plays , 3 rd edn (London: Bloomsbury Academic, 2010), p. 78. Bibliography format: Lastname, Firstname, Book Title (Place of publication: Publisher, Year) Dillon, Janette, The Cambridge Introduction to Early English Theatre (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2006) Wallis, Mick and Simon Shepherd, Studying Plays , 3 rd edn (London: Bloomsbury Academic, 2010)

authorial and political model for a generation of postwar Italian writers This emerged first as Dantean realism in Pasolini's prose and poetry after Contini's interpretation of Dante and of his plurilingualism and then as figural realism in his cinema after Auerbach's concepts of Dante's figura and mingling of styles Following the evolution of Pasolini's mimetic ideal from these formative influences through to La Divina Mimesis Emanuela Patti explores Pasolini's politics of representation in relation to the national popular the questione della lingua and the Italian post war debates on neorealism while also providing a new interpretation of some of his major literary and cinematic works Haunted Serbia David

Norris, 2016-05-05 Haunting is what happens when the past is disturbed and the victims of previous violence who are thought to be buried and forgotten are brought back to the present and made to live again Serbian fiction writers of the 1980s exhume the ghosts of the past re remembering the cruelty of the twentieth century reinterpreting the heroic role of the Partisans and the extraordinary measures taken to defend Yugoslavia's recently won independence and socialist revolution Their uncanny and ghostly imagery challenges the assumptions of the master discourse promoted by the country's orthodox communist authorities and questions the historical roots of social and cultural identities The instability of this period of transition is deepened during the wars of the 1990s when authors turn from the memory of past violence to face the ferocious brutality of new conflicts The haunting evocations in their work continue to articulate fresh uncertainties as the trappings of modern civilization are stripped away and replaced by the destructive logic of civil war The past returns once more with renewed energy in the struggle to make sense of a vastly changed world Rethinking Juan Rulfo's Creative World Nuala Finnegan, Dylan Brennan, 2016-05-05 Though primarily known for his haunting enigmatic novel Pedro Páramo and the unrelenting depictions of the failures of post revolutionary Mexico in his short story collection El Llano en llamas Juan Rulfo also worked as scriptwriter on various collaborative film projects and his powerful interventions in the area of documentary photography ensure that he continues to inspire interest worldwide Bringing together some of the most significant names in Rulfian scholarship this anthology engages with the complexity and diversity of Rulfo's cultural production The essays in the collection bring the Rulfian texts into dialogues with other cultural traditions and techniques including the Japanese Noh or mask plays and modernist experimentation in the Irish language They also deploy diverse theoretical frameworks that range from Roland Barthes work on studium and punctum in photography to Henri Lefebvre's ideas on space and spatiality and the postmodern insights of Jean Baudrillard on the nature of the simulacrum and the hyperreal In this way innovative approaches are brought to bear on the Rulfian texts as a way of illuminating the rich tensions and anxieties they evoke about Mexico about history about art and about the human condition Rewriting 'Les Mystères de Paris' Amy Wigelsworth, 2016-05-26 Key works of popular fiction are often rewritten to capitalize on their success But what are the implications of this rewriting process Such is the question addressed by this detailed study of several rewritings of Eugène Sue's Mystères de Paris 1842-43 produced in the latter half of the nineteenth century in response to the phenomenal success of Sue's archetypal urban mystery Pursuing a compelling analogy between city and text and exploring the resonance of the palimpsest trope to both Amy Wigelsworth argues that the myst res urbains are exemplary rewritings which shed new light on contemporary reading and writing practices and emerge as early avatars of a genre still widely consumed and enjoyed in the 21st century Poetry and the Leningrad Religious-Philosophical Seminar 1974-1980 Josephine von Zitzewitz,2016-05-12 The Religious Philosophical Seminar meeting in Leningrad between 1974 1980 was an underground study group where young intellectuals staged debates read poetry and circulated their own typewritten journal called 37 The group and its journal offered a platform to poets who subsequently entered the canon of Russian verse such as Viktor Krivulin 1944 2001 and Elena Shvarts 1948 2010 Josephine von Zitzewitz's new study focuses on the Seminar's identification of culture and spirituality which allowed Leningrad's unofficial culture to tap into the spirit of Russian modernism as can be seen in 37 This book is thus a study of a major current in twentieth century Russian poetry and an enquiry into the intersection between literary and spiritual concerns But it also presents case studies of five poets from a special generation not only Krivulin and Shvarts but also Sergei Stratanovskii 1944 Oleg Okhapkin 1944 2008 and Aleksandr Mironov 1948 2010 The Italian Academies 1525-1700 Jane E. Everson,Denis Reidy,Lisa Sampson,2016-04-14 The intellectual societies known as Academies played a vital role in the development of culture and scholarly debate throughout Italy between 1525 1700 They were fundamental in establishing the intellectual networks later defined as the R publique des Lettres and in the dissemination of ideas in early modern Europe through print manuscript oral debate and performance This volume surveys the social and cultural role of Academies challenging received ideas and incorporating recent archival findings on individuals networks and texts Ranging over Academies in both major and smaller or peripheral centres these collected studies explore the interrelationships of Academies with other cultural forums Individual essays examine the fluid nature of academies and their changing relationships to the political authorities their role in the promotion of literature the visual arts and theatre and the diverse membership recorded for many academies which included scientists writers printers artists political and religious thinkers and unusually a number of talented women Contributions by established international scholars together with studies by younger scholars active in this developing field of research map out new perspectives on the dynamic place of the Academies in early modern Italy The publication results from the research collaboration The Italian Academies 1525 1700 the first intellectual networks of early modern Europe funded by the Arts and Humanities Research Council and is edited by the senior investigators Translating Myth Ben Pestell,Pietra Palazzolo,Leon Burnett,2016-05-20 Ever since Odysseus heard tales of his own exploits being retold among strangers audiences and readers have been alive to the complications and questions arising from the translation of myth How are myths taken and carried over into new languages new civilizations or new media An international group of scholars is gathered in this volume to present diverse but connected case studies which address the artistic and political implications of the changing condition of myth this most primal and malleable of forms Translation is treated broadly to encompass not only literary translation but also the transfer of myth across cultures and epochs In an age when the spiritual world is in crisis Translating Myth constitutes a timely exploration of myth's endurance and represents a consolidation of the status of myth studies as a discipline in its own right
