The Milky Way Streets Jill Frankenberry, 2014-12-23 How does one share the essence of personal experience in a voice that can be understood clearly This book is in many ways the story of my life It clamors to be told It cannot be restrained It cannot be shut out When you step into my world you will find yourself Macrocosm and microcosm the universe mirrors the interior of all things in this creation No matter how diverse the form the content is the same Any life song is quite important If one person is touched by mine it will be sufficient

The Three-Way Street Richard Timer, 2006-01-20 At one point in everyone's life he or she may face that three way street in which a decision has to be made Whether it is right or wrong we all have to make one Indeed that one decision we make might turn out to be good or bad sometimes it is out of our hands to judge Though our future may lie within the decision we make today but the outcome may have to lie within the way fate and destiny dictates itself If one has no one else to help him judge no one else will be better than God for him to get in touch Richard Timer
